ITALY DECLARES OPEN BREAK WITH KAISER; RUMANIAN ULTIMATUM DIRECTED AT AUSTRIA

Berlin, August 28---(Via London) --- Rumania declared war on Austria-Hungary on Sunday evening, it is announced officially here.

The announcement follows: "The Rumanian government yesterday evening declared war on Austria-Hungary. The federal council has been convoked for an immediate sitting."

Berlin, Via London, August 28---Germany has declared war on Rumania.

Berlin, August 28---It is officially announced that Italy has declared war on Germany.

London, August 28.—Germany having declared war on Rumania, Turkey and Bulgaria are expected to do likewise, according to a despatch from the Hague to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The despatch from The Hague says the German Federal council met this morning on receipt of the news of Rumania's declaration of war against Austria. The Rumanian legation in Berlin is being guarded by the police the advice says, as stones were thrown through the windows of the Italian embassy in Berlin yesterday.

Berlin, August 28.—(Via London)—Fighting has begun between Rumanian and Teutonic troops on the Transylvania frontier, the official announcement of today indicates. The statement says Rumanians have been taken prisoners.

Paris, August 28.—Rumania declared war against Austria-Hungary last night, says a Havas dispatch from Berne, Switzerland, which declares that the Wolff Agency at Berlin made the official announcement.

Rumania's decision to enter the war was reached at a meeting of the crown council held at Bucharest yesterday morning says a Havas dispatch from Geneva.

The Wolff Agency announces that the German federal council was convoked after the decision became known.

Bucharest dispatches received yesterday stated that King Ferdinand of Rumania had convened a conference of representatives of all the political parties, former premiers, former presidents of the legislative chambers, ministers and government representatives with the idea of ascertaining the views of all sections of public opinion.

The Wolff bureau, which makes the announcement that Rumania has cast her lot with the entente allies, is a semi-official German news agency which frequently is used as an avenue for making public official communications. Rumania is the fourteenth nation to join the war. Her intervention either on the side of the entente allies or the Central Powers has been awaited with concern on both sides. This is due not entirely to Rumania's military strength but also to the strategic advantage of her geographical position and the fact that her entry into the struggle opens to the Russian army a gateway through Rumania to attack the Bulgarians from the north, while the allied army, having its base at Saloniki, attacks them and their German allies from the south.

AUTO BANDITS GET $4,000

(BULLETIN)
Detroit, Michigan, August 28.—Two auto bandits held up a Standard Oil collecting wagon on the Reckner road near Fort Dearborn, a Detroit suburb this afternoon. A report to the police said the robbers obtained $4,000 and escaped.

N. & W. EXCLUDED

Washington, D. C., August 28.—The Interstate Commerce Commission held today that the Norfolk and Western Railroad must be excluded from interest in the operation of the Old Dominion Steamship Company and the Virginia Navigation Company under the Panama Canal act which prohibits railway ownership of water lines.

Turks Accord Prisoners Splendid Treatment

New York, August 28.—The kindness of the Turks towards their prisoners of war was one of the chief impressions gathered by Clarence Butler, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and William Hoffman, of Columbus, Ohio, instructors in the American College at Beirut, Syria, on their 3,000 mile journey that took them through Damascus, Jerusalem, Tarsus, Constantinople, Sofia, Budapest, Vienna and Berlin.

They told of meeting English officers who were prisoners of the Turks, among them Captain Tipton, of the British army aviation corps captured at Kue-el-Amara. Captain Tipton told them, they said, that the Turks had treated the captured officers well, and had given them all comforts they themselves enjoyed. Even the private soldiers, they were informed, had received the same rations as their captors and in many instances, double portions of mutton had been served to the British prisoners.

Storm Hits Ohio Counties

Gallipolis, O., August 28.—A terrific hail, wind and rain storm passed over Gallia county, Ohio, and Mason county, W. Va., last night doing thousands of dollars worth of damage to tobacco and apple crops. Many barns were blown down and several small bridges were washed out.

TO SEARCH FOR HIDDEN GOLD COINS

Chicago, August 28.—Seeking hidden gold coins, appraisers will search the premises of Edward W. Morrison, the aged recluse whose wasted fortune is the subject of investigation by the federal court.

The garden of the old man's home will be spaded by the seekers after the treasure and the walls of the ramshackle home will be searched.

It is claimed that while he spent and gave away his money with a reckless hand, he had a passion for hoarding gold coins and would seldom part with one.

Are Preparing For The Notification Ceremony

New York, August 28.—National Democratic leaders began to arrive here today in readiness for conferences which will precede the Wilson notification ceremony at Long Branch, next Saturday. The gathering of members of the national committee for the first time since the St. Louis Convention will enable Chairman McCormick to canvass the political situation in all parts of the country and prepare a campaign plan to be launched as soon as the president has made his speech of formal acceptance.

The notification committee, of which Senator James, of Kentucky, is chairman, will have headquarters this week at a local hotel, while the members of the national committee and the two campaign committees will meet at campaign headquarters. The grounds at the president's summer home, Shadow Lawn will accommodate 20,000 persons and to bring as many as possible within the reach of the candidate's voice a sounding board has been put over the platform in front of the veranda of the house where the president will make his speech.

HOPE TO SETTLE IRISH PROBLEM

London, August 28.—Strong efforts are to be made during the parliamentary recess for resumption of negotiations for settlement of the Irish question according to reports in Irish political circles. It is understood both the unionist and nationalist leaders are inclined to regard these efforts sympathetically.

PLAN LEGISLATION TO AVERT STRIKE

Washington, D. C., August 28.—President Wilson's plan for breaking the deadlock between the railroads and their employes as discussed in conference yesterday was as follows:

An eight hour law for railroads to become effective at a date far enough in the future to give the railroads opportunity to prepare it.

The law patterned after the Canadian act which creates a commission of investigation and prevents lockouts or strike while an industrial dispute is being investigated.

This plan was discussed by the president with his party leaders in congress as the basis for the next step after the railroad managers have formally announced their refusal to accept the plan of settlement the president previously proposed. They were expected to do this at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the White House conference. Meanwhile congress leaders gave up hope of adjournment this week and settled down to stay here as long as necessary to provide legislation to meet the strike situation.

While the president has not formally given up hope of bringing an agreement through direct negotiations, he is looking forward to going before congress with his plan for legislation.

The president, it was said today, had repeatedly shown a willingness to consent to any plan which would include the principle of the 8-hour day and has stood ready to submit to the railroad employes any plan suggested by the executive which had a possibility of acceptance.

The railroad executives have based their objection to the president's plan on the ground that the entire controversy should be submitted to arbitration.

It was understood today that many proposals of different form have been presented to the railroad executives through the White House, but they have been met with the statement that the roads stood for arbitrating the whole controversy. If all the negotiations fail and the president goes before congress, probably tomorrow or Wednesday, it is said he will reveal the details of all the negotiations in his address and his plan for legislation.

WHEAT MARKET SMASHED

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Rumania's declaration of war smashed the wheat market. Opening prices today showed a fall in some cases amounting to 5 1/2 cents a bushel.

September delivery, which closed Saturday at $1.51 1/2, started today at $1.46 to $1.48 1/2. Other options also broke wildly. General rushes to sell took place which were increased by the increased chances of a general railway strike in the United States.

Before the descent of prices could be checked, losses that reached to 8 1/2 cents a bushel were shown for the principal trading months. December sold as low as $1.45 1/2 as compared with $1.54 at Saturday's finish.

Notwithstanding that the tremendous pressure to unload holdings carried away for a while all other considerations the extraordinary break in values was too tempting for buyers to resist, and the market showed the consequence of rallies of 3 cents to 3 1/2 from the lowest level.

In the late dealings weakness again became acute. Prices tumbled lower than before and closed demoralized 9 3/8 cents to 11 1/2 cents lower.

News that actual fighting between the Rumanians and the Teutons had already begun accompanied the final decline in prices and made the trading at the finish a frantic whirl of excitement.

Colorado Beauty To Wed Ingersoll Heir

MISS WINIFRED ROBINSON.

Colorado Springs—Miss Winifred Robinson has announced her engagement to Harold Ingersoll, of Rockford, Ill., who has regained his health after three years here.

It is said Captain Arthur Poillon, of New York, a United States military observer in Europe, recently came here with the intention of marrying Miss Robinson, who is prominent in the smart set and known for her unusual beauty. Their engagement had been understood for some time, although it was not formally announced.

Mr. Ingersoll is heir to the millions of the Ingersoll Manufacturing Company.

"It will be a terrible mix-up, I suppose," said Miss Robinson today. "But Captain Poillon has been fully warned. Our engagement was never formally announced, although rumored often."

Miss Robinson met Captain Poillon two years ago in California. Their engagement was first reported last winter, and until now was never denied by Miss Robinson.

Willis Probes Tax Situation

Columbus, O., August 28.—Governor Frank B. Willis is making an investigation on the tax situation in Franklin county, it was announced today and until this is completed he will take no action in regard to the resignation of State Tax Commissioner James Boyle which resulted from the local controversy.

Mr. Boyle resigned last week following complaints of the action of Franklin county tax authorities who are said to have arbitrarily raised the assessments of 15,000 tax payers. The authorities said the increases were made after Mr. Boyle had informed them that such action would be legal.

Grant Miller, young grandson of Patrobian Grant Goines, who has been seriously ill for several days past, was reported better Saturday.

(BULLETIN)

Washington, D. C., August 28.—National Guard troops of Ohio, Kentucky, and Vermont, now in mobilization camps were today ordered to the Mexican border.

War department officials said no particular significance was attached to the movement of the troops. Some time ago they were ordered to the border and when the railway strike situation became acute on General Funston's recommendation the order was suspended. Today's orders lift the suspension.

The suspension of orders to guardsmen of all other states remaining in mobilization camps, still stands, however, and no orders had been issued today for them to proceed.

Camp Willis, Columbus, O., August 28.—Indications today were that all of the troops comprising the Second Brigade, Ohio National Guard, will have departed for the Mexican border by Thursday. No moving orders had been received today by any of the units of the first brigade, the cavalry, machine gun companies or hospital corps.

The Fifth Regiment began packing its equipment today and will have all of its baggage loaded on railroad cars tonight. It will leave for the border tomorrow in three sections; the first at 10 a. m., the second at noon and the third section at 2 p. m. All of the Fifth's tents were down today and the troops of that regiment will sleep in their "pup" tents tonight.

The Fourth Regiment will begin packing tomorrow and expects to leave Wednesday. The Eighth will begin packing Wednesday preparatory to leaving Thursday.

Major Charles Miller, chief mustering officer, stated today that the rapidity with which the Second Brigade gets away will determine how soon the First Brigade will move. Rations for ten days were issued to the men of the Fifth Regiment today.

STATE FAIR USHERED IN

Columbus, O., August 28.—The sixty-fifth Ohio State Fair opened today, replete in every department with exhibitions of interest to residents of the state, with a program of good entertainment, an attractive race card, and a social feature added in a night horse show.

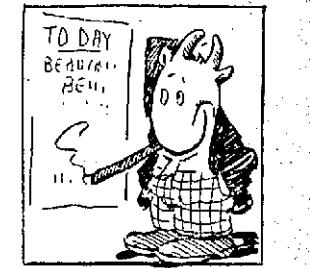

When the gates were opened at 8 o'clock this morning, practically every exhibit was in place and the fair grounds was the mecca of streams of vehicles bearing thousands of people to the annual official gala event of the state.

A feature of the program of today was the unfurling of an American flag said to be the largest in existence.

ENCAMPMENT OF G. A. R. OPENED

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 28.—With the calling to order this morning of the executive committee, the fiftieth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was ushered into official being. Immediately following was the session of the committee on credentials. Meetings of the Women's Relief Corps and other allied organizations of the G. A. R. were held at their headquarters.

Testing Rubber

The elasticity and hardness of rubber can be determined by an apparatus known as the scleroscope, which shows the hardness of steel by the rebound of a pointed steel hammer. A sharp point is forced into the rubber, and the force exerted and the depth of penetration are automatically recorded on graduated circles, a combination of these indications giving the degree of hardness. The elasticity is shown by the height of rebound of a steel ball when dropped upon the rubber from a measured height. The apparatus is simple and easily and rapidly tests the relative value of different specimens of rubber.

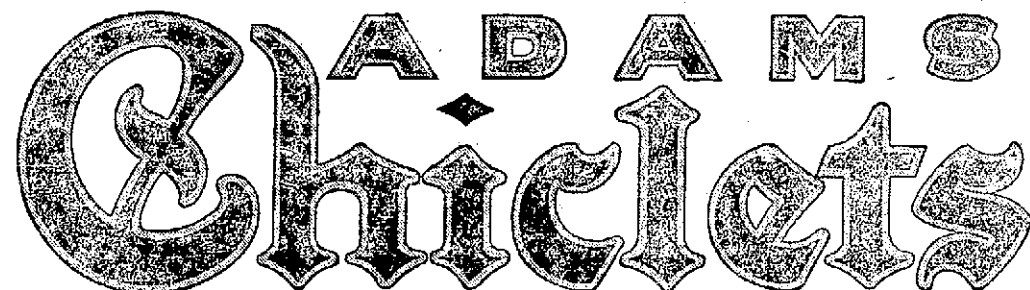

Every day that the TIMES is published, builders list their bargains on TIMES WANT AD page.

School Children

Defective Vision

The school bells will ring within a few days, and the boys and girls of Portsmouth will again take up their studies after the summer vacation. Have you ever considered the condition of their eyes? For a child to make progress in the school room, he or she must have good vision. If they seem to be trailing in their studies, nine times out of ten it's because of eye trouble. All children are naturally bright, with a good brain, but no matter how bright those with defective sight are handicapped.

A Word To Parents:

Before starting your children to school, don't you think you owe it to them to have their eyes examined? We will gladly test their eyes, FREE OF CHARGE, and if they do not need glasses, we will tell you so. We would not fit a pair of glasses on a child that does not need them for any price. Those who do need them, we will so advise, and we are quite certain we will make their glasses as reasonable as is consistent with expertness. And remember, parents, it is much easier to correct defects in youth than it is in after years. Don't allow your child to be handicapped—give him a fair show with the rest.

Bring your children to us and rest assured they will be properly cared for.

A week ago, while carrying a party of passengers from Portsmouth to Rarden, Mr. Mershon's car broke down and turned over just beyond Dry Run, breaking one wheel and the windshield.

A Daughter of the Home Tells of Newborn Happiness

How the Neal Treatment Brought Brightness to a Farmer Drink-slaved Ohio Home.

"The whole household is brighter and happier since he takes some interest in life." So writes a daughter to the Neal Institute in telling what the Neal Treatment did for her father, and she added: "He is enjoying good health, is perfectly happy, and hasn't lost a day's work since he left the Institute."

The Neal Institute has brought happiness and increased prosperity into thousands of homes. Those who drink to excess can quickly get rid of all desire for alcoholic beverages. Three days of the Neal Treatment will do this most effectively. Your own investigation is urged.

The Neal Treatment is a physician's purely harmless vegetable remedy, taken internally, with no dangerous hypodermic injections. There is no publicity.

Face winter without fear

The home circle is the nation's greatest asset, and the foundation of the home is cozy warmth—the dust-free, healthful, reliable warmth that everyone nowadays knows is solely guaranteed by use of

AMERICAN & IDEAL RADIATORS & BOILERS

Tens of thousands of IDEAL Boilers are sold by us annually for heating all kinds of buildings in America, Europe, Japan, Australia, etc. No other kind of heaters in any way equals these outfits as heat-makers and fuel-savers, and they are permanent—nothing to rust out or wear out.

Burn one-third less fuel than other devices

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators are built scientifically to extract and distribute the greatest possible volume of heat from each ounce of coal. Two-thirds of the heating surface of an IDEAL Boiler is directly around the fire—absorbing the utmost heat from the fuel. Heat is circulated three times as rapidly as in old-fashioned heaters—which is one of the strong reasons why IDEAL Boilers burn one-third less fuel than other devices.

Tested and specified by eleven greatest nations

Easy to put coal in the roomy door—a whole day's supply put in the IDEAL fire-pot in a minute's time. Easy to shade and only a few grate bars at a time. The same grate is used for years. Supplied with IDEAL Syphon Regulator which controls draft and check dampers automatically to suit weather changes. Many exclusive features, tested and specified by eleven greatest nations for government buildings, hospitals, etc. We appoint no exclusive agents anywhere—can be put in by any dealer—the price is the closest possible between manufacturer and user. Price is no higher than asked for inferior makes. Accept no substitute! On each IDEAL Boiler and AMERICAN Radiator our name is cast—your guarantee.

Send today for "Ideal Heating" (free), giving much valuable information on fuel economies—for homes, churches, stores, schools, and other buildings. Act now, and face every future winter without fear.

Another great labor-saver—stationary Vacuum Cleaner

You can wonderfully reduce house-labor and protect home health by use of ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner—sits in basement or side room; works through an iron pipe running to all floors; cleans carpets, furnishings, walls, ceilings, clothing, mattresses, furs, etc. In sizes at $115 up. Ask also for catalog (free).

No exclusive agents.
 Sold by all dealers.

MOTORCYCLIST IS BADLY HURT IN UNIDENTIFIED FLOATER FOUND IN OHIO RIVER

Hurled from a motorcycle down a 30-foot embankment, was the fate that Amanda Nordi, who resides on John street, met with Sunday afternoon at 4:30 while riding his machine to this city from Lucasville, where he visited a camp established there.

When Nordi was forced to take the extreme west side of the Scioto to Peell four miles north of the city because he was "crowded" by an automobile his machine skidded on the slippery road and he was thrown down a steep embankment. When found he was unconscious, but revived when removed to the Hempstead Hospital. He was bruised about the head and shoulders and was injured internally. He was removed to his home on John street this morning.

Nordi is employed as a laborer in the plant of the Selby Shoe Company. His motorcycle was badly damaged.

TERMINALS

Mrs. W. M. Fogleman and son, Harry, of Walnut street, returned home Monday after spending several days with relatives at Ashland, Ky.

Edward Church and Schell Hagins, brakemen, are taking a week's vacation and will visit in Jackson and Lexington, Ky.

Miss Marjorie Chick, of Gallia street, is visiting her cousin, Miss Virginia Hansen, of South Portsmouth.

Mrs. E. M. Wamsley, of Gallia street, left Monday for Columbus, where she will spend the week with relatives and attend the State Fair.

Mrs. Wayne Watts, who has been ill at her home on Gallia street for several weeks, is improving.

R. H. Duvendack, clerk for the road foreman of engines, is back from a vacation trip to Detroit, Mich., and expects to go to work Wednesday.

Extra 1483, east-bound, in charge of Engineer D. Prince and Conductor S. Burke, derailed and badly damaged two empty cars near Hordland, W. Va., Sunday, at 12:45 p. m., caused by an emergency stop, blocking both main tracks. The Williamson wreck crew was called and the track was cleared at 2 p. m.

F. W. Havener, of the N. & W. office, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks at South Webster.

James Ruffin, colored pullman porter, was killed in the Cincinnati cars while looking for his car. While train No. 25, west-bound was passing, he was standing along the iron fence opposite Whitaker street, and attempted to jump over the track ahead of the train, just as G. R. & L. train No. 5050 was passing, and was instantly killed. Which train killed him is unknown. Train No. 25 was in charge of James McMahon and Conductor W. G. Hopkins. The body was turned over to the city authorities at Cincinnati.

A. E. Riley, yard brakeman on No. 774, of the Joyce avenue, Columbus, yards, while carrying wrecking frogs, dropped one on his left foot, badly mashing two toes. He was taken to Dr. Oglesby's office, where his wounds were dressed, and later taken to his home in Columbus.

R. E. Stroup, mason helper at Reesess, Ohio, just out of Columbus, had two toes of his right foot badly crushed while pushing a truck car, when he placed his foot on the rail and the car ran over it. A company surgeon was called and dressed his wounds.

J. S. Norris, motorman for the Columbus street railway company, badly bruised his head when engine No. 1113, moving west across the Main street crossing, struck the street car. Engine No. 1113 was given the signal to proceed, and after it had started the signal was given to the street car. When the car got on the crossing the trolley pole came off of the wire, causing the car to stop and the engine crashed into the vestibule of the car. The engine was in charge of Engineer O. Smith and Fireman C. E. Shaffer.

The crew of the Bay Line packet Greyhound discovered the "floater" and shouted to S. V. Smith, of No. 1709 Eighth street, who was at the camp. He put out in a boat and caught the body about 100 yards from shore and towed it to the bank, where he tied it.

Mr. Daehler turned the body over to Supt. William Weidner, of the county infirmary, who arranged with Undertaker Louis Snyder, of Wheelersburg, to bury it at Franklin Furnace.

Train Rider Arrested

A young negro giving the name of John Seales, was arrested at the Norfolk and Western depot Monday noon by Detectives Reno and Leslie on a charge of train riding. Seales was arraigned before Squire John W. Byron and was fined $5 and costs.

PUT YOURSELF IN THEIR PLACE

According to reports, furnished the consular department of the United States, by Consular Agent Letcher, stationed at Chihuahua, the total valuation of wealth in Mexico is $2,434,241,422. Of this Mexicans themselves own $792,187,242, Americans $1,057,770,000, and other foreigners the balance.

Thus it will be seen that Mexicans possess less than one-third the wealth of their own land. Now, let us be fair about this, let us put ourselves in the place of the Mexicans. Supposing there was an industrial and development invasion of Ohio by Japanese. They proved themselves more enterprising, adept in fraud and chicanery. They corrupted legislatures, they bought up public officials, they stole and seized by loose grants and franchises the utilities of cities and the lands of the country, they oppressed the laborer, they treated all the natives with contempt. Supposing not one individual of the thousands of invaders had any thought of becoming a naturalized citizen, had no personal interest in the country whatsoever, but all were there solely as the representatives of corporations and vast interests to exploit the resources of the country, to milk it of its plenty and sent it abroad, think you there would not be ill-will and hatred on our part, struggle to get back that of which we had been ruthlessly plundered, because we were supposedly ignorant, unprogressive and inefficient? Certainly there would be, fierce and bloody. Well, that is exactly the condition that exists in Mexico. When we think of it, when we understand the agitation back of those who inspire such clamor as there is for war with her, then we will comprehend fully why this country, in both honor and justice, should exercise the uttermost patience and forbearance in dealing with such government as there will be in that ill-fated land and exercise every influence possible to maintain peace with her, until force becomes the only resource left.

LET US HAVE THE REAL FACTS

It is clear enough that a sewer was built on private land and the city asked to pay for it. This sewer was constructed on the Zaph land in July. In August council actually passed an ordinance to pay the cost of its construction. The city solicitor says the ordinance, providing for payment, came to him in the regular order and he drafted it. The director of public service, under whose supervision is the construction of sewers, says he knew absolutely nothing about this particular one. Now, it is evident from this that no one in rightful authority directed the construction of the sewer; it is equally evident that the only legal authority to authorize its construction was city council. Then let the city solicitor tell who it was brought the data for the ordinance to him in "regular order," and above all, let the city engineer, whose business it is to survey and plan sewers, tell what connection and knowledge he had of the sewer and whether that knowledge was as city engineer, or as representative of the Zaph estate, it being understood that he acts in both capacities. And as for Mayor Kaps he might do a bit of probing to fix liability for what at the best is an inexcusable blunder, and which was exposed and denounced by the floor leader of council, Mr. Charles Wilson.

The automobile owner may regard it as unfortunate that it should choose Sunday afternoon to rain, but then he'll have to admit it was some rain at that.

West Virginia papers and orators are bragging about the vast coal operations of the state. All admitted, but three years ago half of the same were lugubriously predicting that free trade would paralyze it.

How a politician thinks he can commend himself to partisans and politicians by entrees against the ravishment of the civil service is one of those things past understanding.

The Korn Carnival promoters avow they are going to make it more of a show this year than ever. That's some undertaking, but the Peerless has a way of ever moving forward.

A paper says the Danish West Indies could have been bought for $5,000,000 when John Hay was secretary of state. Why recall how foolish it was in John not to snap up the bargain? Those islands are seriously needed in our preparedness business.

The Hinton Leader is altogether unique. It favors the primary and says it works like a charm. We should say it is and may be it does—in West Virginia where it calls the dead back to life and enables dogs and mules to exercise the sacred functions of the ballot.

It will be a long time before the race of wooden heads become extinct. A government expert figures there is enough timber in the country to last 44 years.

Nothing like being exact. Think what a joy it was to read that in one engagement the Russians had captured 2,987 prisoners, after having had it put in round figures all these years, until you had begun to believe it was against the rules of war to capture anything except even thousands.

Some people don't know a price when they see it. The Danes have refused to sell their little patches of ground above the waters of the Gulf of Mexico to the United States.

WILL THE MADNESS NEVER CEASE?

THE COST OF FAST LIVING

We have heard a good deal of the high cost of living; a little figuring will show fast living costs a trifle also.

According to "The Record of Automobile Owners in Scioto county", just off the press, there are 1152 automobiles darting hither and thither all over the net work of roads hereabouts. There are more than that because there are omissions in the Record and since the data for it was compiled every dealer has sold some machines. We will say then, as we can safely can, that there are today 1,200 cars owned in Scioto county. This represents an aggregate investment of a round million dollars. Assuming each car will consume no more than a gallon of gasoline a day that would be for the whole lot 1,200 gallons, at an cost of $110,000, $130,000 for a reasonably allowance for oil consumption. A low estimate for repairs and up-keep would be $25 for each car. This would add $30,000 more, making $160,000. But we must very modestly put on another $25 for tires and tubes. Then we would have $190,000 for the year. That's a right substantial sum, but it is not all, not by any means. The interest on a million, $60,000 every twelve months. The average life of a car is about five years. Thus at the end of that time there would be heaped high a total, allowing for the incidental expense a car entails in the way of extra cost of meals from home, of a full million and a half in five years, one-fortieth of the assessed wealth of the county.

As interesting data gathered from the Record, it may be mentioned that in the 1,200 cars there are 77 different makes, over 400 of one make and over a 100 each of two others.

ANGER SHORTENS LIFE

"Anger or rage uses up the vital forces at an appalling rate," says the Kansas City Star—and truthfully. "The exhausted feeling which comes over you after you have been thoroughly angry should tell you that you have drawn on the day's supply of vitality."

But it does no good to discuss the point, for the reason that people who are in the habit of becoming angry claim that they can not help it—it is their nature, they assure you. But as a matter of fact, there is no characteristic so easily overcome as the habit of becoming angry—if only people would try to overcome it.

Anger is an indication of mental weakness. It is folly, in fact, and the person of wisdom refuses to be angered. So when one tells you that he can not restrain himself, that he can not help becoming angry, it is equivalent to admitting that he is foolish to that extent, or lacking in intelligence to a very great degree.—Dayton News.

It is growing as it goes. It is now "estimated" that it took $200,000 to put Herriek over for the senatorial nomination. Why not stick to the pretty well established $50,000. That's enough to show just what a lovely chance the primary affords the candidate of small means.

Outside of Portsmouth there are 275 automobiles owned in Scioto county. A proof that the machine is a utility as well as a pleasure.

Some candidates are long on telling what they would not have done, but when it comes to telling what they would have done, why, that's different.

The Beavers Hunt A Home

BUSBY BEAVER straightened the hair on his forehead and perked up his eyebrows. "Now we're almost there," said he encouragingly.

"Well, maybe so," replied his mother kindly, "but you never can tell."

"But mother! We've been traveling miles and miles and miles!" exclaimed Busby in dismay. "Aren't we anywhere yet?"

Mother Beaver laughed and Father Beaver looked around to see what was going on. He had been marching ahead, you see.

"He wants to know if we're there yet," laughed Mother Beaver. "Just as though we know!"

Father Beaver looked at Busby but he didn't laugh. You see he was tired too and he was exactly how Busby felt. "This hunting a new home business is hard work," said he. "But you very well know we couldn't stay at the old place—not after those trappers came! Your hide wouldn't have been worth a cat tail, not a single cat tail, to you. I can tell you that!"

"We have to find a safe place this time and we have to go till it's found. I don't want to build a fine place again and then have to move again and then have to move again and then have to move again."

"Right away, not if I can help it," said Father Beaver. "We'll journey till we find a nice, quiet little creek, near a pleasant little pond, and there we'll build and there we'll stay. So do be patient, Busby."

Of course, after such a long speech as that, there was nothing for Busby to do but to start ahead. Father Beaver was not much of a speech-maker and when he talked so much Busby realized that important things were going on. So he gave himself a little shake and started on again.

But he had not far to go before something happened.

Mother Beaver, who had gone on ahead while Father Beaver was talking to Busby, gave a sharp little cry. "Father Beaver! Father Beaver!" she called breathlessly, "come here!"

So he gave himself a little shake and started on again.

Father Beaver hustled over to where she was in a jiffy, because he was afraid something was happening to her. "What's the matter?" he called as he ran.

"I've found the place," she answered, "the very place we've been hunting!"

Busby could hardly believe his ears. He scampered after his father, and what do you suppose they saw? The prettiest little creek they had ever discovered! Yes, sir! Right there in front of them—think of that!

"Here's where we stay!" said Mother Beaver.

"Suits me," said Father Beaver. "Hurrah!" shouted Busby. He and he threw down his hat and began playing.

Tomorrow—Busby forgets to eat.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Aug. 28.—In appearance Carlo De Fornaro looks very much like a Jesuit priest and he keeps the hours of a brigand. He sleeps all day long at his bungalow on Staten Island and at night he wanders from cafe to cafe. Regardless of his cafe life, he drinks nothing stronger than water, but he smokes cigarettes incessantly.

He is one of the odd geniuses who make the night life of Broadway just a bit interesting. Without a few of his kind it would be colorless and drab. He was born in Calcutta, India, and reared in Italy and Switzerland. In 1906, after several years as a cartoonist in New York, he gave tired of the glittering electric signs and went to Mexico.

When he returned to New York he exposed the Machiavellian methods of Diaz and for his troubles was sentenced to three years on Blackwell's Island for criminal libel. While he was on the island he wrote several books and he drew many cartoons which were printed in New York papers.

A famous all night restaurant has its walls plastered with drawings and paintings done for Fornaro. After he makes a tour of the other cafes he winds up there at 3 o'clock in the morning, and with the other midnight sons waits for the sun—and sometimes other things—to come up.

A page from Broadway. Joe Hall at sixteen King of the race tracks. Joe Hall at 69 Bowery derelict. The other day he was sentenced to the workhouse for three months for panhandling. He has been living a hand to mouth life on the Bowery for six years.

Years ago he thought nothing of placing $10,000 on a pony that struck his fancy. He was known by the man who runs the famous Alligator Flop House on the Bowery, where two may split a glass of beer and then sleep all night on the floor in the flop room in the rear. About a year ago Hall was given the Alligator Flop House by the man who runs it.

It has a regular bed and one chair. Hall always took his breakfast in his room just like he did when he lived at the Astor. His breakfast was a three cent bowl of hot soup. In his room the police found several of his own poems warning young men to shun the many candle power cabarets and never gamble.

Three years ago Florence La Budie dropped a dime between the cracks of the floor of a stage at the Thannouster studio. Probably the incident would have been forgotten right there had the concern not hired the versatile Jerome Beatty as press agent. Now the whole matter has been revived and improved upon. Workmen were tearing up the flooring at the same spot. They found a quarter. It was the coin Miss La Budie had dropped. Fifteen cents in interest had accumulated.

And not satisfied with this, Beatty hides his head with the shame of his admission and writes: "Jack Girondo, the 'dare-devil' motor, who risks his neck without batting an eye, recently went fishing and refused to bait his own hook because he was afraid of the worms."

There is a new little restaurant in West Thirty-Fourth street, where they allow the patron to see the food, the kitchen, the chef and the food before it is cooked. I dropped in there the other evening. In front was a sandwich man wistfully staring at the chef stirring some dish over the coals.

"Perhaps you would like to dine here?" I ventured.

He looked at me strangely and I looked at him again. I passed into the restaurant without another word. My sandwich man had once given me employment in the West. Drink had dragged him down, but he has pride.

Five years ago he was doing the same thing, but got a grip on himself, and fought his way back to the top. I wonder if he will again?

Brick roads are a good advertisement. Last week an automobile wayfarer through the northern part of the state heard Scioto county and its immediate vicinity were getting all the state money to build brick pikes. Of course, everybody casts longing eyes towards where the money is.

CONCRETING THE SHADOW

In Virginia one of the Democratic nominees for presidential elector, having been since named for congress, feels impelled to resign the first honor. At once a lively discussion has sprung up over the state as to who shall be chosen his successor and the newspapers are entering with great zest into the subject. It all seems rather absurd. A presidential elector is no great shakes. He's a mere proxy, an automaton. All the privilege he gets is to have his name printed on the ticket, and, if elected, go to the state capital and cast his vote for the man his party offers for president.

His pay is practically nothing, unless he happens to be selected as messenger to carry the vote to Washington and then it is no great shakes. Honor, yes, high one but vanishing like a shadow and leaving no impression behind it, nor before, for that matter. Go out on the street this day, ask every Democrat or Republican who are the nominees for electors on his ticket and for every one he is able to mention, we'll give you a dime, if you'll give us a cent for every one he can't recall and has never heard of. Yes, we'll do better. Ask a 100 and we'll lay the same odds they can't so much as tell you the name of the presidential elector for this district.

"Nothin', Miss Mary; 'just killin' Chinese."—Woman's Journal.

Elastic Lanker—Snappy dresser, isn't she? Seer—Yes; no wonder she makes men rubber.

Crushed In The Dust Wife—What sort of thing do you call yourself, anyway? Husband—I am just a living warning to hachelors.

Speaking of Cross-Eyes A man once told of a cross-eyed Bryn Mawr girl whom he took to dinner at a social function. "Why," he said, "she was so cross-eyed that she ate off my plate."—Argonaut.

If We Know If I knew that a word of mine, A word not kind and true, Might leave its trace On a loved one's face, I'd never speak harshly; Would you?

If I knew the light of a smile Might linger the whole day through And lighten some heart With a heavier part, I wouldn't withhold it; Would you? —Author Unknown.

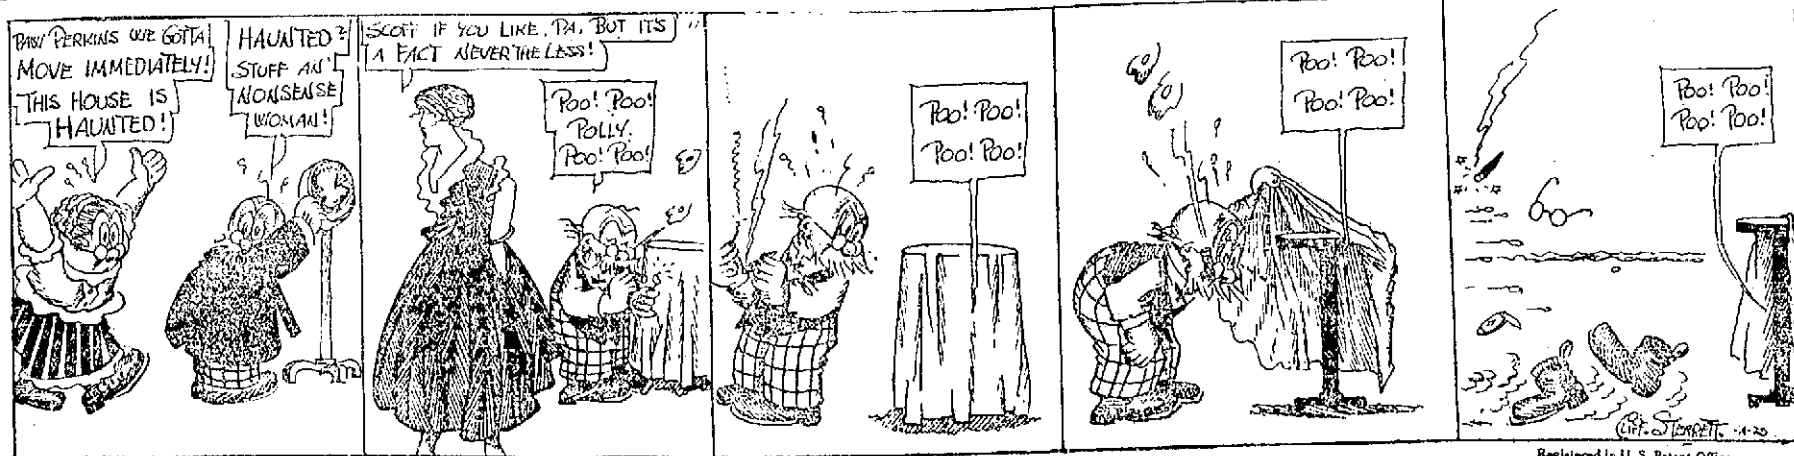

Right and Left The minister was dining with the Fallers, and he was denouncing the new styles of dancing. Turning to the daughter of the house he asked sternly: "Do you yourself, Miss Fuller, think these dances are right?"

"They must be," was the answer, "because I notice the girls who don't dance them are always left."—Exchange.

WAR

expansion. In the southern half of Bukovina, the Austrian crown and, the Rumanians the dominant race. The mass of the people of eastern Transylvania, a part of Hungary, is Rumanian by race and language. It is said 4,000,000 Rumanians live in Transylvania.

Rumania has been credited with a long cherished ambition to annex these provinces and at the same time "liberate" the Rumanians now under Austrian domination. Recently it was reported Russia had offered Coronevitz to Rumania as a reward if she would unite with the entente.

Rumania Covets Bessarabia
Rumania also covets Bessarabia, the extreme southwestern province of Russia, on the Black Sea, which was taken from her by the Berlin treaty of 1878. Reports have stated that Russia also has consented to restore Bessarabia as a war prize, with its population of 2,000,000, mostly Rumanians and an area of 20,000 square miles. This, with Transylvania, would give Rumania a total population approaching 13,000,000, a territory as great as that of England, Scotland and Wales. Rumania has a border line as long as the whole Russian Western war front on which to choose her point of military attack. In what direction her first blow might be aimed is only indicated by her desire to pour her troops through the passes of the Transylvanian Alps and the Carpathians into Transylvania. On the other hand, Austria has been accumulating military forces at Orsova, prepared to attempt to force the "Iron Gates", where the Danube river touches the Western Rumanian border.

Bulgaria Prepared For Invasion
Bulgaria is said to have stationed 100,000 or more troops along the southern bank of the Danube to protect her northern frontier from a Rumanian invasion. Apprehension in Germany that Rumania intends to pass a Russian army through her territory to attack the Bulgarians has been apparent for some time. Military authorities in Budapest assert that the chief factor for the consideration of the Central Powers is not the half a million or more men of the Rumanian army but the opportunity offered for a new Russian invasion of Hungary. Rumanian sympathizers in Transylvania have been sent to other sections and the Rumanian priests and churches there have been kept under military supervision.

The Transylvania - Rumanian frontier defenses have been strengthened by Austria as a precaution against Rumanian invasion.

Powerful influences on the part of most of the Central Powers and the entente allies have been exerted at Bucharest to influence her in the war for the last two years. Recently reports from the Rumanian capital have stated that Rumania was awaiting the beginning of the Anglo-French offensive in Macedonia before joining her fortunes with those of the entente allies. Another reason for delay in her decision, it is said, has been lack of ammunition, which now has been relieved by large supplies coming from Japan by the way of Vladivostok, according to recent reports.

Bulgaria May Bear Brunt of Attacks
Washington, D. C., August 28.

Many general staff officers believe Bulgaria will be called upon to bear the brunt of the attack of Rumania upon Austria-Hungary.

According to war department information Rumania has war supplies to last four months. The entire equipment of the Rumanian army unless changed recently, is of German manufacture which may make the supply problem difficult for the allies. The only known route for furnishing munitions is by way of Russia.

The immediate effect of participation by Rumania, it was said, was to open Rumanian routes to Russian army and make possible a banking movement against the whole Austrian army in the Carpathians.

The entry of Rumania was hailed with expressions of satisfaction at the allied embassies where officials made predictions of important developments in the Balkans within the next six weeks affecting Bulgaria's continuance of the Teutonic allies. Officials here expressed no surprise at Rumania's action, which was known to be dependent entirely on Italy's declaration of war on Germany.

A declaration of war by Greece would not be surprising here, as the great element of caution which is thought to have restrained Greece in recent months is said to have been removed and that Greece will want her share in the Balkan spoils.

German Attacks At Fleury Repulsed
Paris, August 28.—The Germans made several attacks on the French positions at Fleury last night, but were repulsed, says today's announcement of the war office.

Allies' Attacks Are Repulsed
Berlin, August 28.—(Via London)—British and French troops made repeated attacks on the German positions last night in the region of the river Somme on the western front, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff. The attacks failed the statement says partly after hand to hand fighting and partly on account of the German counter-attacks.

Declaration Was Inevitable
London, August 28.—Italy and Germany have been drifting steadily toward war. In actual Italy's formal declaration amounts to little more than official recognition of state of affairs which already existed. The declaration became inevitable when Italy recently sent troops to Saloniki to co-operate in the campaign of the Entente Allies on the Macedonian front as Germany is directing the opposing forces and has troops on this battle line.

Italy's position in regard to Germany has been an anomalous one since Italy withdrew from the Triple Alliance, May 23, of last year and declared war on Austria. Although by this act she arrayed herself against her former allies, Germany and Austria, she remained officially at peace with Germany until yesterday. Before Italy took this step Germany exerted every effort to induce her to remain neutral, sending to Rome as Ambassador, Prince Von Buelow, one of the ablest statesmen of Germany. The prince for some time averted war between Austria and Italy and when he saw a rupture was inevitable took steps toward preservation of an official peace between Italy and Germany. He negotiated a special agreement which, in case of war between Austria and Italy, Germany and Italy pledged themselves to respect the properties and lives of their respective subjects in each other's domains. This meant for Germany a guarantee of many millions of dollars worth of properties in Italy and for Italy, the safety of 30,000 Italian subjects in Germany.

Diplomatic Relations Severed Last Year
Although officially at peace, Italy and Germany severed diplomatic relations last year. On the day after Italy's declaration of war against Austria, Prince Von Buelow and his staff left Rome and two days later the Italian Ambassador at Berlin was withdrawn. That was when Italy adopted the unusual procedure of asking Switzerland to inform Germany of her declaration of war.

Italy's action probably will have little effect on the military situation in the immediate future, although as the war goes on it may have a more important bearing. On the Austro-Italian front Italy finds active use for hardly more than half her army and in future can send available troops to any front. Having committed herself already to the Macedonian campaign, Italy's step is of no significance as respects that theatre of war. Germany hereafter will be free to take such part in the Austro-Italian campaign as may be decided on by the Teutonic Allies either in the way of leadership or by utilizing her soldiers when needed in the rapid shifting of troops from one front to another.

Term It a Diplomatic Defeat
London, August 28.—Italy's declaration of war against Germany and the declaration of war by Rumania against Austria-Hungary have caused almost profound impression in the German capital, says a despatch from Berlin by way of the Hague to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The Berlin newspapers, the despatch adds, express themselves bitterly against Gottlieb Von Jagow, the German foreign minister and Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, the under-secretary for foreign affairs, those statesmen being considered by the journals to be partly responsible for what is declared to be Germany's diplomatic defeat.

Italy's Action Came As Surprise.
Berlin, August 28.—(Via London)—Although Italy's declaration of war against Germany was absolutely unheralded and came as a complete surprise, it failed to cause the slightest ripple of excitement in Berlin. The announcement was made public yesterday afternoon in the customary extra editions of the Sunday newspapers which give the official war reports. Idle crowds read the declaration undemonstratively and then continued the usual Sunday strolls. The official Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, sounds the keynote of press comment, taking the position that Italy's formal declaration of war will have but little effect in view of existing conditions.

The declaration of war was plainly to be expected, the Tageblatt continues, when the present cabinet of Premier Baselli was formed and Walter Kunciman, president of the British board of trade visited Italy.

The only surprising thing about the declaration, this newspaper says, is Italy's unblinking assurance in selecting as a cause of war, Germany's support of her Allies.

Demonstration For Venizelos
Athens, Aug. 27.—Via London Aug. 28.—Fifty thousand Greeks joined in a demonstration before the residence of Venizelos, the former premier, today, and cheered him with boundless enthusiasm when he urged them to send a committee to King Constantine to urge him to support the present government and prepare the army for "A possible rupture of existing conditions." Addressing the multitude, Venizelos said:

"Last week I summoned you to a demonstration to show you what to do. Now, I exhort you to send a committee before the king and to say to him:

"Your majesty, you were the victim of persons who persuaded you there would be a German victory, and you thought you could violate the constitution. The people do not approve of these facts. The reversals telegraph you that they are ready to follow you, because they think you always will remain neutral."

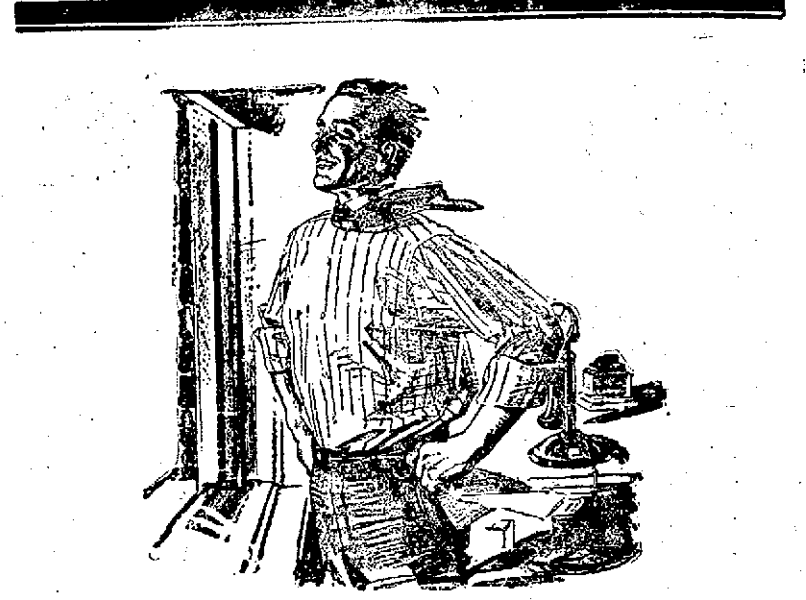

"Elections are necessary, but you must not use your influence politically because the results would be destructive. The present government is absolutely necessary. The premier (Alexander Zaimis) is an excellent man. You should give the government full political authority. You must now show the entente powers most benevolent neutrality and exercise the army in preparation for a possible rupture of existing conditions. The liberal party is confident as regards your position."

In conclusion Venizelos declared: "I think our desire will be favorably accepted; otherwise I will do my best."

Greek Territory Being Occupied
Athens, August 27.—(Via London, August 28.)—The landing of the first contingent of Italian troops at Chianura (a small seaport of Albania on the Strait of Otranto) causes gloom throughout all Greece. The Greeks now see not only eastern Macedonia in the hands of the Bulgars, whom they expelled three years ago but northern Epirus in the hands of the Italians.

Following the landing of the Italian troops the Greek civil officers were temporarily relieved of their functions and the telegraph wires were cut, but this damage was soon repaired.

M. Pachitch, the former Serbian premier, has gone to Chalkis to pay his respects to King Peter.

JEWISH SOCIETIES TO TAKE VOTE

New York, August 28.—Jewish societies throughout the country will take a referendum vote this week on the question of accepting the agreement regarding the proposed Jewish congress. This tentative agreement was arranged a few weeks ago by the congress organization committee and the congress committee of national organization. The proposed agreement has been attacked on the ground that it is undemocratic and limits the scope of the congress. Its opponents say that the congress should have unlimited power in determining Jewish policy and that the agreement would leave entire control of Jewish affairs in the hands of a few leaders.

Miss Fannie Drugan Is Almost Drowned

Miss Fannie Drugan, employed in The Times office, narrowly escaped drowning in the Ohio river at the bathing beach Sunday afternoon. She was rescued after going down twice by Carl Wolfe. Miss Drugan was standing on a float in about 15 feet of water, when some one without warning, pushed her into the river. The breath was knocked out of her and Miss Drugan, although a good swimmer, was in danger of drowning, as she was rendered helpless by the fall.

Train Jumper's Foot Crushed, Is Amputated

Okey Payne, aged 22 years, of near the passenger depot Saturday evening, missed his footing board an S. & W. freight train and fell under. The fore part of his foot was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated. Dr. W. A. Quinn performing the operation at Hempstead Hospital.

The accident was similar to that which befell Charles Snider, a New Boston young man of the same age, who had the forepart of his right foot crushed in trying to steal a ride on a B. & O. freight train.

Arrangements Are Made For "German Day" Here In October

German Day is to be celebrated this year in Portsmouth about the middle of October, a resolution to that effect being passed yesterday at the meeting of the German-American Alliance. The committee to take charge of the celebration will be appointed at the next regular meeting September 10, by the President, J. V. Schiffer.

The Chillicothe organization of the Alliance with the Eintracht Maennerchor Singing Society, have promised to participate in the celebration in a body. Judge Schwaab, of Cincinnati, state president of the Alliance, will deliver the oration. "Deutsch-Gemeinschaft" will be the password.

Ludwig Stark, delegate to the Alliance State convention, delivered his report in an able manner. Vice-President J. P. Wahrheit, Treasurer Herman Huels and Jacob Kah made short addresses speaking on the benefits of the Alliance. The Maennerchor is rehearsing some of the best songs of the old Vaterland for the occasion of the German Day celebration.

Distillery Is Found In Pen; Scioto County Prisoner Blamed

Columbus, Aug. 28.—An embryo distillery has just been described at the penitentiary, it is reported. Guards, it is said, caught Charles Mims, Scioto county forger, stealing corn and molasses from the prison kitchen. Mims, who is said to be a former Kentucky moonshiner, worked in the prison barber shop. To conceal getting a shave it is said Mims would give a "tonic" which possessed the "kick" of a real hypodermic.

Charles Mims was convicted in the local court of common pleas several months ago on a charge of forgery. He had secured employment at the home of John E. Williams as a chauffeur. A few days afterward he forged a check upon Mr. Williams. Little was known about his past life. He claimed he was originally from North Carolina, having escaped from the state penitentiary there.

PIANO GOES CRAZY WITH THE HEAT

Capt. Lou Ellis, veteran stoker at the Seventh street engine house, claims to have a piano that become so affected by the heat that it played a perfect scale. In discussing the incident, Capt. Ellis said that his wife and several visitors were sitting in the room at their home on Court street when the piano played a perfect scale. The piano has been looked for years, Capt. Ellis says.

IS ENJOYING VISIT TO NEW YORK

The Times has received an interesting letter from Mr. William

Higgins, who is in New York city, the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kiroack. Mrs. Kiroack will be remembered by many friends as Miss Dorothy Higgins.

"I have received your paper regularly since leaving home," writes Mr. Higgins, "and I assure you it is read with much satisfaction. When one is away from home, even in New York, the reading of home news from day to day keeps one in touch with home affairs and people. has perhaps relieved more sufferers than any other known remedy in the same length of time. More than one hundred thousand bottles sold in the past four months under an absolute guarantee to give satisfaction or money returned, and only three bottles have been returned. Many have testified that they had suffered with rheumatism and lameness until they had been forced to give up their work because they could not use their limbs. Some who could not even raise their arms above their heads have been restored and are now making a good living. All that other sufferers may be relieved by using this great oil remedy. This wonderful new oil remedy is popular in so brief a time and is so much praised today by thousands throughout the South. For rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago and other ailments of any kind of an aching pain, it is said to be without an equal. For sore throat, croup, diphtheria and tonsillitis, and for all other ailments, it has been found most effective. This wonderful new oil remedy is producing such results throughout the country is now for sale by all leading druggists. Accept no substitutes for there is nothing like it. Beware of cheap imitations. Every bottle guaranteed to cure. Send a bottle of Miller's Antiseptic Oil to Geo. W. Freund.

SATURDAY IS POST CARD DAY

There are twenty-five thousand Korn Karnival post cards on sale at the various stores in the city. Not quite enough for every citizen of Portsmouth, but enough to supply those who desire to mail a card to their friends and relatives living out of the city.

Saturday, Sept. 2, is Post Card Day for the Greater 1916 Korn Karnival. A post card placed in the mail to an out-of-town friend will assist to build the autumnal celebration.

Each card, a small unit, but twenty-five thousand a handsome structure. An advertising feature, of course! But each loyal citizen is interested in seeing that the Karnival is properly advertised.

Don't leave it for your neighbor to mail one of those cards. Purchase a bundle and take the initiative. Be one of the first! Assist! Set the pace for your neighbor!

There are five scenes depicted on the post cards, each one representing a particularly interesting feature of the 1916 Karnival.

For instance, the living American flag, which marched down Gallia street, the sweet choral, the industrial parade and the farmers' parade and others.

Buy a card and become a Korn Karnivalist!

An Alleged Forger, Wife Beaters Gun Toters Drunks And Thief Face Mayor In Police Court

A young man claiming to be Charles Hill, of Humden, and employed with the Portsmouth Construction Company, pleaded guilty in police court Monday to charges of forgery.

Hill was charged with forging the name of Harry Malone, of the West Side, to a $450 check on the Central National bank and also one for a similar amount on the Portsmouth Banking Company, two weeks ago. Capt. Fred Wintery and Frank Bryan, West End saloonkeepers, cashed the checks believing him to be a West Sider. Mr. Malone, who was in court, said it was the first time he had ever seen Hill. Bryan's bartender was positive Hill was the man, but the saloon men were not so certain. Hill was taken into custody when he tried to buy a quart of whiskey at the Bryan saloon after closing time Saturday night. He protested his innocence of the check transactions. The mayor reserved his decision.

Henry Vance, the Morgan county, Ky., youth, who was reported to have snapped a gun at his wife, was held to the grand jury in the sum of $200 for carrying a concealed weapon.

Vance denied having snapped the gun at his wife and claimed he was carrying the gun for his own protection, having heard that an enemy named Patrick was in town looking for him and had made threats to shoot him. He said Patrick once ran away with his wife, but that he had taken her back. Vance was reminded that he had been overheard making remarks Friday night that he was going to get drunk Saturday, shoot someone and then skip out. He was told he was too dangerous a young man to be left at large.

E. M. Johnson, a Dexter avenue chauffeur, was fined $25 and sent to the city jail for stealing a bicycle of Stanley J. Jones, of the Pure drug store, on Eleventh street. The jail sentence was suspended on condition that the fine be paid. The theft occurred two weeks ago. After repainting the wheel and supplying it with pedals, Johnson sold it to Will Ellison, who gave it up to Mr. Jones. Johnson had also gotten a pair of shoes from Ellison, failing to pay for them. He said he did not know what possessed him to steal the bicycle, unless it was that he had been drinking that night. Johnson had left the city with the Indian Joe Wild West show, enroute to Fronto, but was overtaken at Sciotoville.

John Smith, of No. 1313 Sixth street, who is employed in the Whitaker-Glossner company's shipping room, was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail for assaulting his wife, but the fine and sentence were suspended on condition that he refrain from drink. He and wife had been down town shopping Saturday night and while she was in a store he conveniently adjourned to a saloon. She got tired of waiting for him. When he reached home and found her in bed he bent her in the face with all his might, she testified. She said he was all right when sober.

Anna Neighbors, who was found "anchored" to a fence opposite the Stockham ice plant on Chillonthe street Sunday morning at one o'clock, was fined $5 for drunkenness and warned against returning. She claimed some Lucasville woman, with whom she had been driving around in a buggy, gave her some wine.

Then Monk, a West Side mill man, who was ejected from several downtown saloons and refused to go home when friends tried to assist him Saturday night, was fined $10, half of which was suspended, pending good behavior. Nosh Holt and Nosh Zimmerman were fined $10 each for who ordered him to vacate the premises. He had a bottle of whiskey at his side when police arrived. John Mayberry, another negro, who was also found there, was fined $10 for trespassing.

Eugene Pettiford and wife, colored, who were arrested upon complaint of neighbors who said they were fighting in their restaurant at Twelfth and Railroad streets Saturday night, agreed to close up their place in two weeks. It was on that condition that Mayor Kaps suspended Pettiford's fine of $25 and that of his wife, $10. Numerous complaints have been received about disorders at their place.

Cement Floor Laid

A cement floor has been laid in the addition built to the rear of the H. T. Hinton property occupied by W. E. Treat with a saloon on Gallia and Lawson streets.

New Stock Room

The ten-foot arends in the rear of the Flood & Blake pharmacy has been closed and will be used as a stock room by the drug firm. The Lawson street entrance has a plate glass front.

this, and it thrills me through and through. Can you help me in any way to win her? Thank you.

HILL-TOP.

If you can't win her with an automobile, I am afraid she can't be won. And, listen, Hilltop, reserve your love-making until after working hours. Perhaps the reason she acts so "cold" is because it is rather embarrassing to have her whisper sweet nothings into her ear when everyone else is listening. Then, too, no one can work and act foolish at the same time.

Dear Dolly—What is the best position to take in order to sleep well? REX.

The position in which to sleep is lying down. Of course you should have a bed under you.

Dear Dolly—Please advise me what to do, as I am in poor health and the mother of six children, have to keep a hired girl, and my husband is so spoony, etc., with her, that it bothers her with her work, and when I was confined in bed he stayed in the kitchen or wherever she was, most of his time. I loved my husband and children and used to be happy, but now I am not so happy. The girl is going to leave. I feel at times like ending my life, but my children come in my mind, then I think I must live for them. This is serious, but true. Please give me some advice. A READER.

If your children are not large enough to help with the work, why not get a middle-aged woman to stay with you. No respectable girl or woman would spoon with your husband. Being in poor health, you probably imagine a lot of things that are not true. Why would any young girl want to make love to a married man with six children, when there are so many fine-looking single men running at large? Don't nag your husband. It's bad enough to have a sick wife without having her nagging at him while he is in the house. You never will get well if you worry about every little thing that happens. Be cheerful, be kind, and above all, be true to your husband if you want to be happy.

Vanderbilt, Mich.—Dear Miss Wise—As I am a young girl and wish for your advice because I have no mother, to give me any advice, as she died two years ago. I am 17 years of age and have courted a young man for two years and we both are deeply in love with each other and he is two years older than myself, and his folks and my father think we are too young to marry, so give us your advice what to do. S. M.

Do as your father wishes. Wait a year or two before you get married. In the meantime why not let the man do a little of the courting, since you have "courtied" him for two years.

Middletown, O.—Miss Wise—Can you tell me why Farmer Wright don't accept a wife when one is offered to him. There is a lady here in Middletown, O., who would love to correspond with him and has answered his ad, but got no answer yet. I don't think I will get him another woman, for I don't think he wants one.

A READER OF THE TIMES.

Mr. Wright found the right one last week, and they are now happily married, at least I hope they are.

Dear Dolly—I am desperately in love with a girl and would like some advice from you. We work in the same office and our desks are side by side. She is always joshing and kidding me, but does not seem to think of me seriously. Recently she was away two weeks on a vacation and since returning she is, if anything, colder toward me than before, although I had hoped that being away would cause her to realize she loved me. Now, Dolly, I am a young man of excellent habits and own an automobile, but will never be happy without this girl, who is the dearest and sweetest thing that ever graced the face of the earth. Leaving off the letter "D," I have written her name in the above paragraph. I just happened to notice

What to Do for Itching Skins

There is usually immediate relief for itching, burning and disfigured skin, eczema, ringworm, or similar tormenting skin trouble, in a warm bath with resinoid soap and a simple application of resinoid ointment. The soothing, healing resinoid medication stops itching at once, and then clears away all traces of eruption, even in severe and stubborn cases, unless the trouble is due to some serious internal disorder.

You need never hesitate to use resinoid. It is a doctor's prescription that has been used by other physicians for twenty years in the treatment of skin afflictions. It contains absolutely nothing that could injure the tenderest skin. Every druggist sells resinoid ointment and resinoid soap. Resinoid Soap soothes tender skin and helps to make poor complexions clear, fresh and velvety, because it contains this resinoid prescription.

ELDERLY WOMEN SAFEGUARDED

Tell Others How They Were Carried Safely Through Change of Life.

Durand, Wis.—"I am the mother of fourteen children and I owe my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I was 45 and had the Change of Life, a friend recommended it and it gave me such relief from my bad feelings that I took several bottles. I am now well and healthy and recommended it to other ladies."

—Mrs. Mary Emery, Durand, Wis.

A Massachusetts Woman Writes: "My troubles were from my age, and I felt awfully sick for three years. I had hot flashes often and frequently suffered from pains. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now am well."

—Mrs. Prudence Conover, Box 223, Blackstone, Mass.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, laches, drowsiness, impatience, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, spots before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness, should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through this crisis.

FIRST MEETING IN 57 YEARS

(By H. M. S.)

For old friends to meet for the first time after fifty-seven years have come and gone is an experience enjoyed by very few indeed.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Margaret Sickles left this city to go to the home of her daughter, Mrs. James H. Delph, of Nelsonville. At Hamden, Mrs. Sickles went to the American House for luncheon and to wait for her train, and there met Mr. William Littlejohn, the landlord, the first time they had met in all those years. She did not know him, but he recognized her.

"Aren't you Margaret Wilson?"—and then they talked of the days of long ago, and the old friends, most of whom have passed to the shadow world.

Fifty-seven years ago, Mrs. Sickles, now almost 80, was Miss Margaret Chaffin Wilson, one of the prettiest and finest girls the East Side ever produced, and living with her parents, and sisters on the Wilson farm near Gephart Station. He was Will Littlejohn, handsome, dashing and popular, the life of the country-side, and a welcome guest at all the socials. When the great Civil War came Will Littlejohn was one of the first to volunteer, also Mrs. Sickles' future husband, the late L. M. Sickles. They enlisted in different regiments but were brigaded in same brigade in Grant's army, and during the memorable siege of Vicksburg, they became acquainted in the rifle pits and afterwards friends. Returning from the service, Mr. Littlejohn married a sister of one of a trio of girlhood and life-long friends, Maggie, Ruth and Laura, the latter two being Mrs. Ruth Jones, wife of George S. Jones, and the late Mrs. Charles Erlich, of Sciotoville.

Mr. Littlejohn is a relative of our John Littlejohn, formerly with The Times, later with the Star, and now editor of Wellston Sentinel.

ORGANIZE BAND

Captain James Little, by invitation, visited Mrs. Ruby Williams, of Gullin street, Monday, to inspect her family of pet cats, seven in number. He, as a member of the board of health, says the cats are well cared for and believes that the mistress is really to be commended instead of criticized for her devotion to them.

BATHERS SENT SCURRYING IN RATHER SCANT ATTIRE

Citizens living along the route taken by those who enjoy the cooling waters at the bathing beach, were treated to a rare sight Sunday afternoon. It happened that several were in bathing when the heavy downpour broke over the city. Clothing, shoes and hats were drenched.

Unable to get into their shoes, several young ladies were compelled to go home barefoot. Others with wet clothing. And still one young lady adopted a blanket as a medium to protect her from the elements while enroute home.

NOTICE To All Gas Consumers

When using a gas range, if the flame blackens the utensil, it is because the burners need cleaning and adjusting. If the flame in the heating stove is yellow, it is due to the same cause.

If you are having any of these troubles, notify us, and we will have a man call and adjust your stove.

Feeds Thousand Hears One Tale

Proprietor of Toledo's Biggest Restaurant Repeats Tale of Hundreds of Men.

"About two months ago it started," began Clarence M. Babcock, proprietor of the big Cherry restaurant at 312 Cherry street, Toledo, O., where more than 1,000 Toledoans are served daily.

"One customer after another would come in, give his order, and tell how good he felt.

"It seemed that from day to day I heard hundreds of men telling how well they felt—and proving it by their meals—and ascribing it to one thing—Tanalac. You see, there are more than one thousand customers every day at the Cherry. Most of them are pretty busy, but they have time enough to pass a good thing along. So they told me about Tanalac, and kept telling me every day.

"Ludoor work and long hours had begun to tell on me pretty hard. I had to drag myself through the day's work. Kidney trouble was causing me fearful pains, I had no appetite and couldn't sleep, and the constant grind had affected my stomach, too. For four months I had been a fine example of the man who is 'all run down.'

"I had grown nervous and had lost twenty pounds in less than two months. I didn't feel as if I had energy enough to work a day through. I was irritable and far from being myself.

"There can be but one answer to this Tanalac story that's continued every day, I decided. If hundreds of level-headed men come in here and praise Tanalac and say it has restored their appetites, toned them up, made them sleep and generally benefited them, it must be true. So I bought Tanalac.

"Now I am feeling just one hundred percent better. I have a good appetite. My work looks good to me and I have the energy to take care of it. Customer after customer says to me, 'Clarence, what have you been doing to yourself that you have changed so? And I like to hear it, and then I tell them I have been taking Tanalac. Get some, it's great.'

Tanalac, the tonic, appetizer and invigorant, that won this state-ment from a conservative business man, is being introduced in Portsmouth at the Fisher and Streich pharmacy.

The Movies

Blanche Sweet and Thos. Meighan in "The Duke" At Lyric Tonight

Beautiful and captivating Blanche Sweet and Thos. Meighan the popular leading man of the Lasky company, are splendidly cast in the modern society drama "The Duke," which is the Paramount offering tonight at the Lyric theatre. "The Duke" is a romantic drama of unusual excellence, a striking tale of modern society, elaborately staged and gowned. The admission will be us usual, 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children.

At The Columbia

"Casey at the Bat," the Triangle De Wolf Hopper comedy, to be seen at the Columbus tonight, tells in picture form the story of the famous baseball poem which Hopper has recited from countless stages and at innumerable social gatherings since it first appeared, more than a quarter of a century ago.

It will be recalled that Casey, the invincible slugger of the Mudville baseball team, came to bat one afternoon in the fifth inning of a close game with a rival nine and, when a hit was needed to win, impudently struck out, leaving the entire populace of Mudville gasping with amazement and drenched in gloom.

The poem does not reveal what untoward circumstance it was that caused Casey to fall down so grievously at a crucial moment. This mystery the picture promises to clear up.

a strong and appealing moral. The pictures are new, which is also much in their favor. Each drama is easily understood and is highly entertaining and interesting. Pretty Ruth Roland and Henry King play the leading roles. A screaming comedy completes the program.

At The Arcana.

"The Man Across the Street" is a 2-reel Imp drama featuring King Baggot as a young traveling man who returns home to find his wife, portrayed by Edna Hunter, wearing fine gowns and displaying herself with a gentleman friend. The husband makes up as the friend, calls on his wife, and kills her in his anger. The friend is then found guilty of the crime.

"The River Goddess" is an Imp comedy featuring Matt Moore, Jane Gail and others. Two men meet beside the river where each has seen the vision of his lost love. They relate their stories, and it appears that the girl turned them both down for her chauffeur.

"The Janitor" is a Power comedy in which an acrobatic janitor furnishes the chief amusement. He is almost killed in the elevator and falls from the tenth story of a skyscraper. A fight on the flag of a tall building is exciting.

At The Temple.

"The Grip of Evil" that thrilling Pathe serial, featuring Jackie Saunders and Roland Bottomley, starts tonight and will be shown every Monday evening. The first episode is entitled "Fate."

Tonight is shown the final chapter of "The Iron Claw. See who has been "The Laughing Mask." He discloses his identity and marries the only sure-enough "peerless, fearless girl."

Boy Scouts Put On A Clever Minstrel Show

(By H. Sayre.)
Camp Carter Caves, Ky., Aug. 25.—Thursday night was a night long to be remembered by the Boy Scouts who are camping this year at Carter Caves. The boys celebrated with an old fashioned "joy night." They put on a swell minstrel show at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Vickers which was largely attended by the country folks in the neighborhood. "Chet" Bellamy acted as inter-leucator and the funny stuff was dispensed by the "Happy Four": R. Bellamy, J. Schlichter, W. Hopkins and Edwards. Scout Swearingin furnished some swell music also. The "Bellamy Twins" also brought the house down with their clever stunts.

ACHES AND PAINS

Don't neglect a pain anywhere, but find out what causes it and conquer the cause. A pain in the kidney region may put you on your back tomorrow. Don't blame the weather for swollen feet, it may be an advanced warning of Bright's disease. A pain in the stomach may be the first symptom of appendicitis. A cramp in a joint may be the forerunner of rheumatism. Chronic headaches more than likely warn you of serious stomach trouble. HENDERSON W. SNYDER, whose last known address was English, West Virginia, will take notice that on the Fourth (4th) day of August, 1916, Henry T. Hutton and William Mearns, plaintiffs, filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Sevier County, Ohio, a certain writ of Habeas Corpus, wherein said plaintiffs pray for the recovery of possession of the following described real estate, situated in the said County and State, and in the Township of Clay, and being:
The North One-half (1/2) of the Southeast One-quarter (1/4) of Section 13, Township 33 North, Range 2 West, containing Twenty (20) acres, more or less. Anding also for the cancellation of a certain written contract for deed, given the said Henderson W. Snyder by George W. Hutton and wife, recorded in Volume 171, at Page 42, Sevier County, Ohio, Records of Deeds, and for general equitable relief.
The said HENDERSON W. SNYDER will answer this cause on or before the 15th day of September or judgment will be taken against him by default.

Athletic-Tiger game—rain.

Game Called in Sixth.

The first game of a double header at York park was brought to an end at the beginning of the 6th inning when the rain drenched the diamond. The East End won the game in the second inning when they hit Pitcher Parker of the Kendall Avenues for a total of 8 bingles.

The grounds were in such condition that the second game between the Athletics and Tigers was called off to be played at a later date. The box score.

Reds Lose 13 To 6

Cincinnati, Aug. 28.—In a slugging match Brooklyn took the last game of the series from Cincinnati Sunday 13 to 6. The local team used three pitchers and the leaders two. Knicker and Appleton both gave a base on balls when the bases were filled, forcing runs across the plate.

Fred C. Merkle, whom New York traded for Catcher McCarly, held down first base for Brooklyn in today's game and played good ball both at the bat and in the field. McCarly will report to New York here tomorrow.

Local Fans Will See Real Games Next Month

Portsmouth fans will be given an opportunity to see some real baseball again during the month of September, as William Gableman will organize a team of leaguers to play a series of games in Millbrook.

By this time Spencer, Hunter, Conwell, Earl Smith, McIlenny, Dillhoefer and several other crack players will have completed their seasons and would be anxious to show local fans how much they have improved. Mr. Gableman is firmly of the opinion that the fans would patronize a fall series of well-played games.

These who have used Dr. King's New Discovery longest are its best friends. Besides every bottle is guaranteed. If you don't get satisfaction you get your money back. Buy a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left for Cough and Cold insurance.

James Williams, an auto victim, who four weeks ago was badly injured in an automobile accident near Sciotoville, is improving from the serious operation he underwent several days ago. He has a nervous twitching in his legs, which is taken as a good sign that he is slowly regaining the use of them.

Miss Bertha Blevins, the Olive Hill, Ky., young woman, who in an effort to end her own life one day last week, swallowed bi-chloride of mercury tablets, has left Hempstead hospital and returned to her home at No. 310 Third street. She is now considered out of danger.

Bet On Tigers

A Detroit broker Saturday bet $100 against $500 that the Tigers would beat out the Boston Red Sox in the American league. The Red Sox have a five and one-half game lead over the Tigers, who are winning with great regularity these days.

SPORTLETS

Our old friend Nick Carter pitched a ball for Chicago yesterday against Boston and the Cubs won 5 to 1. Carter held the Sox to five hits.

Shreveport and Waco are having a great battle for first place in the Texas league. They were tied Saturday and each club has only nine more games to play, as the Texas league season closes on Labor Day. There are four Ohio State players in the Waco lineup: Donalds, Bittie, Conwell and Reilly.

Boston, Aug. 28.—Ty Cobb, crack outfielder for the Detroit American league, will undergo an operation after the close of his baseball season for the removal of his tonsils, he said today. Cobb said he attributed several weak-kneed colds which have troubled him recently to bad tonsils.

When Joe Rivers and Johnny Griffith step into the same ring at Canton on Labor Day, Griffith will be a slight favorite over the Mexican. They will battle 12 rounds at Canton, Ohio.

Leading pitchers for 19 games in the American Association are:

Finneran, St. Paul 17-10
Sanders, Kansas City 17-12
Burk, Minneapolis 17-12
Dawson, Indianapolis 15-11

Manager Mathewson, of the Reds, has purchased two pitchers from the Kansas City club of the American Association. They are Regan and Sanders, and they are said to be the most promising hurlers in the A. A. circuit. Regan is a right-hander and Sanders is a south-paw. They will report next month in time for a try-out this fall, but before the Reds go away on their last trip, as Kansas City wishes to retain them until the A. A. race is closed.

Catcher Dillhoefer's latest batting average as a Milwaukee Brewer is .241. Henry is hitting .214. Dilly has developed into the team's regular catcher.

HELD CLEVELAND INDIANS HITLESS

Leslie "Bullet" Jow Bush who had his name emblazoned in the hall of baseball fame Saturday when he pitched a no-hit game against the Cleveland Indians, spent ten days in Portsmouth last summer and made many friends here. He reviewed the promising material in the Ohio State league last year from a seat in the local grand stand. Bush is a clever, congenial chap and is recognized by students of the game as being one of the craftiest pitchers in the game today.

Police ended the inning by rolling to Spitzer at second.

In the second inning singles by Clausen, Brown, Haaf, Ross and Walter Gableman were good for four runs.

The police were erased in order in their half, while only four musicians went to bat in the third. In their half the police negotiated one run. Lewis rolled gently to second while Beaumont was hit by a pitched ball. Albrecht slugged viciously to center, Beaumont coming home. Flowers ambled, but Flowers whiffed, while Platt forced Flowers at second.

Musicians Were Leading When Rain Halts Game

With five hundred fans present, with both teams displaying whole firings of pepper, with everything attuned to the joy of the occasion, rain just had to interfere with the contest between the Police and River City band teams at Millbrook park Saturday afternoon, and with the contest 5 to 3 in favor of the horn tooters, hostilities were cancelled in the first half of the fourth inning.

It was announced that the game would be played off within the near future, when the admission would be as free as a drink of hydrant water.

Says Prison Labor Can Be Legally Employed

In a written opinion to the county commissioners, prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait holds that prison labor can successfully and legally be employed on the highways of the county.

A plan is now being considered by the county officials to install the patrol system of maintaining highways. In connection with this plan, since the Cincinnati work house management has rejected a proffered contract to make Scioto county prisoners, the county is considering clothing the patrol superintendents with the authority of deputy sheriff and placing prisoners in their charge.

Splendid Rehearsals Held Sunday By Geeks

Yesterday proved to be the big day for the Geeks' minstrel rehearsal at the Brunner rooms on Chillicothe street. Every chair in the room was taken and each and every member of the show seemed eager to put his shoulder to the wheel and keep the good work going. The boys began the good work at 1:30 p. m. yesterday and with the exception of an hour for lunch, remained right with it heart and soul until 10:15 last night.

The first part drills were started at the afternoon session and pronounced great by those who do not participate in same, while Messrs. Sank and Berrian say they never in all their experience as minstrel producers, drilled such an eager and earnest bunch of boys.

The sale of tickets is very large and it is almost a certainty that two packed houses will be the answer when the Geeks have completed the task to "Help Shoe the Poor Kiddies."

16 Arrests Are Made

Whether Joe Stokley's going was responsible or not, it was regarded as rather a strange coincidence that the police station presented a "full house" Monday morning.

There were fifteen arrests since Saturday and with a man named George Fox, who was arrested for the Lewis county, Ky., authorities exactly sixteen prisoners lined up for breakfast Monday. Joe has started a ten days' vacation.

WANTED TICKET TODAY FOR TO "MORROW"

"Say, Mister, what time can I get a train today to Morrow?" asked a stranger at the city ticket office of the Norfolk and Western Saturday.

"Say that again, please," requested Cliff Connell, the clerk.

After repeating his seemingly paradoxical question, Mr. Connell said: "Will you please tell me where you desire to go?"

"Sure, to Morrow."

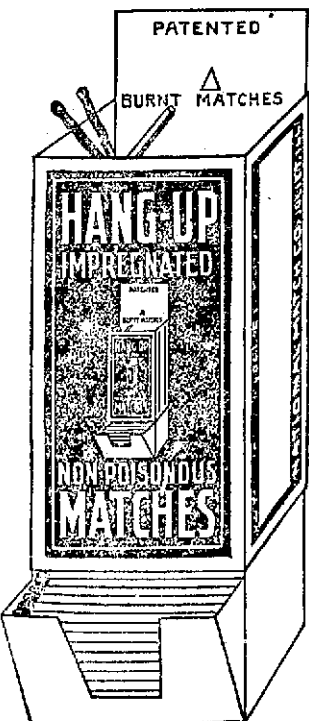

After considerable questioning and diplomacy on the part of Mr. Connell, for he was beginning to think it was sort of a joke, it was found that the stranger desired to go to Morrow, Ohio.

WILL MAKE 10 FOOT FILL IN IDLEWILD

A contract for making a ten-foot fill-in what was formerly known as the Idlewild Addition, where a blast furnace is being erected, was awarded Saturday evening by the Whitaker-Gessner Company to The Sturm-Dillard Company.

It will require 230,000 cubic yards of dirt to make the fill, the dirt to be secured from the hill opposite Idlewild Addition. The hill is owned by Messrs. L. C. Turley and Alan N. Jordan. It will require from six to eight months to complete the job, which will make the site of the new $1,000,000 blast furnace above 62 feet.

The work of clearing the huge space where the firm will get its dirt was begun Monday morning by Supt. David A. Breinig. Two big steam shovels will be used on the job and they will literally make the dirt fly.

L. E. Sturm, who resides in Columbus, built the Lawson Run viaduct in the East End and is one of the best known and most successful contractors in Ohio.

John L. Dillard resides in Rockymount, Va., and he frequently bids with Mr. Sturm on certain kinds of work. He also bids on jobs individually. He was here Saturday and signed the contract for the Sturm-Dillard Company to make the Idlewild fill.

Winchester Man Meets "Friend," Is Robbed

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 28.—John Butler, Winchester, O., told the police that when he left home Friday as a "safety first" measure he put his roll of bills, $110, in an old tobacco bag in his hip pocket, where most tobacco users carry their tobacco bag.

This, Butler figured, would fool pickpockets in Cincinnati.

Butler sat down on a bench Saturday in Central Union Station. A new male friend sat beside him and got Butler into conversation. Butler suspected something, but his money was "safe."

After the stranger left, Butler reached for his hip pocket, and the little tobacco bag was gone.

K. K. Meeting Tonight

All general chairmen of committees for the Greater 1916 Korn Karnival are expected to meet this evening at 7:30 with the directors of the Business Men's Association. The meeting will be held in the offices of the Association, Masonic Temple.

Reports on the progress being made by the different committees are to be received and suggestions made for new and unique features.

Shot In Arm While Cleaning Revolver

While cleaning an old revolver Sunday afternoon, William Cooper, of Eighth street, a shoemaker, received a flesh wound in the left arm when the trigger of the machine was accidentally snapped. The bullet lodged in the ceiling of the room occupied by Cooper. He says he thought the revolver "wasn't loaded."

STREET CAR HITS MACHINE, REVARE CAR AGAIN DAMAGED

While driving his automobile south on Chillicothe street Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, David A. Breinig, of 619 Officers street, figured in an accident when a street car hit his machine. The left rear fender was bent and the back of the machine was damaged as the result of the impact. John L. Dillard, of Rocky Mount, Va., was in the car with Mr. Breinig, but they were not hurt.

Revare Car In Accident

An Overland touring car belonging to Frank Revare, of No. 511 Officers street, and driven by his son, Floyd Revare, skidded at Norfolk and Walnut streets, East Portsmouth, Saturday afternoon, going up over the curb, across the sidewalk and hit a fence. The car in going across the sidewalk missed a telephone pole by a few inches. The front axle was bent and one of the wheels shored under the machine. F. E. Bower later removed the disabled car to his garage for repairs. The same car got stalled on Rhodes avenue one day this summer and was badly damaged by a street car running into it.

ROCKY FORD READS THE SIGN

Friends of a local business man are having considerable fun at his expense and it is all because some mischievous boy removed the simple letter "S" from a word he had written on a sign on his auto delivery truck.

He is a well known grocer somewhere in Portsmouth and drives a well known brand of automobile that has become known the world over. On the side of this machine is the sign "Rocky Ford," which is the cause of all the comments.

DRAVO COMPANY IS VERY BUSY

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 28.—Within a few months another new towboat will be seen on the rivers in the Pittsburgh district. The Dravo Contracting Company at its shops, Neville Island, Ohio river, is building an all-steel double-deck "tunnel style," twin-screw propelled towboat for its own use. The boat, which will be known as "Peace," will be 112 feet long, 22 feet wide, 4.10 feet deep, with a draught of 32 inches, and will have 250 horse power. The company, which does most of its shipping by the river route, is building a pump house for the Whitaker-Gessner Co., Portsmouth O. It has just completed an all-steel sand digger for the Keystone Sand and Supply Company, of Pittsburgh, and also the erection of an elaborate sand hoist at McKeesport. They also have erected small-steel derrick boat, 72 by 35 feet with a 65-foot boom, known as the Atlas, for the United States Government, to be used in the Potomac river for the reclamation of ground in that river. The boat was shipped by rail and assembled at Alexandria.

Federal engineers here have made a shipment of more than 30 tons of gate machinery and operating jacks for Dam No. 29 near Ashland, Ky., on the steamer Tell City. The machinery will be shipped at Point Pleasant on one of the Greene Line steamers.

Oil Leases Filed

The Ohio Fuel Supply Company filed one hundred and fifty oil leases with County Recorder Henry Becker Monday. The leases cover periods ranging from five to twenty years. Twelve thousand, three hundred and twenty-five acres in Porter, Harrison, Vernon, Bloom and Green townships are covered by the leases.

SMALL WONDER THAT HE WAS STUMPED

"Haul Anybody, Any Place," reads a sign on the windshield of Clay Merdon's new taxi, but when a West Side farmer on the Market street esplanade stopped up Monday and asked the owner what his charge would be to take him to Hades, Clay was stumped. "I really don't know what to say about that," replied Clay with a puzzled air.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED IN PARK

White Lilly Council, No. 81, Daughters of America, celebrated its twelfth anniversary with an outing at Millbrook park Saturday afternoon, a good sized crowd attending.

The program included a reading by Mrs. Samuel Bower, an address by Edwin Bower on the Jr. O. U. A. M. State meeting at Cleveland, and a number of interesting contests. Milford Bower and Miss Sylvia McAfee won the peanut scramble; Mrs. Blanche Chestnut and John Coldiron the needle contest; Mrs. Emma Buggy and Henry Ribble the watermelon contest; Mrs. Emma Ribble, the old ladies' contest; Ora Pruitt the men's race; Miss Esther Dixon, the fat ladies' race; Miss Lydia Hornbuckle the team ladies' race. Refreshments were served to the matron and children of the Scioto county children's home.

Examine Your TEETH Tonight

—after you clean them.

You will find, in all probability, an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. YOUR DENTIFRICE does not FULLY CLEAN! Loss of teeth is caused usually by one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or decay, both of which develop, as a rule, only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

SENRECO, the recently discovered formula of a dental specialist, is two-fold in its action. First, it REALLY CLEANS, embodying specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Second, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly safe, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit. Avoid Pyorrhea and decay. Get Senreco from your dealer today. In large tubes, 25c. Send 4c to Senreco, 304 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, for liberal-sized trial package.

BACK FROM 1,250 MILE AUTO TRIP

Leo Sommer, of the hardware firm of Sommer Bros., and family returned home Sunday night from a 1250 automobile trip through Illinois. He said it is very dry in most sections of that state, only one rain falling during the three weeks he spent there. The price of gasoline on the trip he found varied from 17 1-2 to 26 cents per gallon.

FIVE GENERATIONS REPRESENTED

O. A. Rieley, of Tampa, Fla., who has been in the city visiting relatives and friends, was present at the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Carter, held near Harrisonville, Tuesday. Mr. Rieley is somewhat of a mathematician and while at the celebration set his thinking powers to working. The result at which Mr. Rieley arrived is almost unbelievable, but if you have the time you can figure the question out for yourself.

There were five generations represented at the anniversary celebration. Figuring on the same basis as the family has increased in the last fifty years, Mr. Rieley found that in the next fifty years there would be 2650 descendants of the Carter family tree. This would be enough for a good-sized village.

125 Teachers Are Present When County Institute Opens

Instructive Lectures Are Given; Teachers Of The City Invited

Tuesday's Program

8:30-9:00—Singing.
9:00-10:15—Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde. A Lecture on Habit.—Prof. Paul F. Voelker.
10:15-10:30—Recess.
10:30-11:30—Writing, The Arm Movement.—Miss Bartlett.
11:30-1:00—Singing.
1:00-1:15—Singing.
1:15-2:15—The Master Builder.—Prof. P. F. Voelker.
2:15-2:30—Recess.
2:30-3:30—Problem of Beginning Number Work.—Miss Bartlett.

3:30-4:30—Meeting with the District Superintendents.
With 125 teachers present the Scioto County Teachers' Institute opened under most favorable circumstances Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the high school auditorium, where morning and afternoon sessions will be held. County Superintendent E. O. McCowen acted as chairman of today's session and kept things moving in his customary manner. It was announced that all teachers who register each morning would receive $2 per day. Delegates who arrived Monday after 12 o'clock will get only half pay for the day.

McCowen introduced the second speaker of the morning, Miss Jenn Bartlett, an experienced extension instructor of Miami University. Her subject was "The Place of Dramatization in the School." Miss Bartlett, who is a forceful talker, handled her subject in a capable manner. She said that the drama and school had interests in common and that the drama played an important part in school work. Miss Bartlett for several months looked after extension work in this district and many familiar faces greeted her when she began her lecture this morning.

County Superintendent E. O. McCowen will take time from a part of certain periods, to be announced from time to time, to explain the plan of alternation of studies for the rural schools and to explain any matters of policy for the coming school year.

The high school departmental work will be given the same time. Miss Bartlett gives her elementary departmental work, Tuesday morning.

The afternoon session began at 1 o'clock and was opened by a short song service in charge of Miss Gertrude Schmidt. This was followed by a lecture by Prof. Paul F. Voelker, who chose as his subject, "The Plan of the House." Prof. Voelker after getting well into his subject stated that it was his belief that within another hundred years there would be no prisons or criminals and that we would all be on the same social level. "Of course we will find defective, but I really believe that institutions for the wicked will be wiped away during this time. The present war sounds the death knell of rulers in Europe. At its conclusion Europe will enjoy the same democracy as we are enjoying in the United States," Prof. Voelker also told his audience of teachers.

"There will be no paupers or millionaires in 100 years. The boy born on the farm will have the same chance as any other boy. The rich man's son today is born with a handicap. One must have an incentive to work. I not long ago had a chance to buy a piece of property in Detroit, which today is worth $300,000. I am glad I didn't buy it. I want to work and wouldn't have known what to do with the money. You teachers ought to be glad you are making your own living. The highest occupation next to motherhood is to be a school teacher."

Prof. Voelker was followed by Miss Glenn Bartlett, who gave an interesting lecture on "Spelling." She told how essential it was for a teacher to be proficient in the art of spelling and how important it was for teachers to make good spellers out of their pupils.

At 4:30 members of the Institute will be shown through the big plant of the Selby Shoe company.

Mr. Charles Page left last night for a trip to Reynolds and Salem, Va. He will stop in Bluefield on his way home.

Mrs. Harry Denton has arrived home from a six weeks' visit to her parents in Chicago. She was met at Cincinnati by Mr. Denton.

Ella Turner won first prize and Cary Frazier won second prize in a guessing contest. Refreshments of ices and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. O. H. Kinder and Miss Jessie Eismann. The guests were Ruth Strickland, Aletha Puckett, Pauline Beaver, Marilla Adams, Cary Frazier, Mary Jane Hall, Grace Gulick, Ella and Evelyn Turner, Anna Marie Holt, Roy Conklin, Donald Kinder and Mrs. Charles Holt.

Many friends will be surprised to hear of the marriage of a very popular young couple, Miss Olive Glover, of Centralia, Mo., and Mr. Earl Garvey, of Silosam, Ky., who were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harper, Jr., at Vanceburg, Ky. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. James Rutter. Mr. Garvey holds a responsible position with the Whitaker-Glessner company. The happy couple will return to Portsmouth to occupy a cozy flat at 622 Offene street, September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wagner entertained with an elegant six o'clock dinner last evening at their home, 908 Offene street, in honor of their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary, and also in honor of their son, Lawrence's birthday. The table was beautifully decorated, in the center being a large birthday cake containing twenty-six candles. Victrola and piano music was enjoyed during the evening. Everyone enjoyed the celebration and left, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wagner and their son many happy returns of the day.

The Hilltop W. O. T. U. will hold a Matron's Silver Medal Contest at the New Boston Baptist church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. No admission charged.

Reconstruction, of course! When the great war is over, shattered Europe must be rebuilt. Mediaeval architecture, crumbled by cannon, will be replaced by well-lighted, well-ventilated, convenient and sanitary buildings of the present day. In this tremendous rebuilding, will play a leading role; for CERTAIN-TEED is the twentieth century answer to the demand for roofing that is economical to buy, easy to lay and inexpensive to maintain.

Certain-teed Roofing

CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roof, from the largest sky-scraper down to the smallest residence or out-building.

It makes a clean, sanitary, attractive roof, with a very low cost per year of life. It is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it outlasts the period of guarantee.

If you are interested in roofs, investigate CERTAIN-TEED before you decide upon the type to buy. You will find CERTAIN-TEED for sale by responsible dealers all over the world.

The long life of CERTAIN-TEED is due to the quality of the roofing felt and the character of the asphalt saturation. This is a blend of soft asphalt prepared by the General's board of expert chemists. The highest quality roofing felt is thoroughly saturated with this soft blend, and is then coated with a blend of harder asphalt, which prevents the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing.

RUMANIA JOINS THE ALLIES ITALY AT WAR WITH KAISER

(BULLETIN)

BERLIN, AUG. 28--(Via London)--Rumania declared war on Austria-Hungary on Sunday evening, it is announced officially here.

(BULLETIN)

BERLIN, Aug. 28--It is officially announced that Italy has declared war on Germany.

(BULLETIN)

Paris, August 28.—Rumania declared war against Austria-Hungary last night, says a Havas dispatch from Berne, Switzerland, which declares that the Wolff Agency at Berlin made the official announcement.

Rumania's decision to enter the war was reached at a meeting of the crown council held at Bucharest yesterday morning says a Havas dispatch from Geneva.

The Wolff Agency announces that the German federal council was convened after the decision became known.

Bucharest dispatches received yesterday stated that King Ferdinand of Rumania had convened a conference of representatives of all the political parties, former premiers, former presidents of the legislative chambers, ministers and government representatives with the idea of ascertaining the views of all sections of public opinion.

The Wolff bureau, which makes the announcement that Rumania has cast her fortunes with the entente allies, is a semi-official German news agency which frequently is used as an avenue for making public official communications. Rumania is the fourteenth nation to join the war. Her intervention either on the side of the entente allies or the Central Powers has been awaited with concern on both sides. This is due not entirely to Rumania's military strength but also to the strategic advantage of her geographical position and the fact that her entry into the struggle opens to the Russian army a gateway through Rumania to attack the Bulgarians from the north, while the allied army, having its base at Saloniki, attacks them and their German allies from the south.

Rumania Has Military Strength

Nevertheless, Rumania's military strength is by no means inconsiderable. The country has a population of 6,800,000 and her army is estimated at 550,000. It often has been described as one of the most thoroughly equipped and disciplined armies in Europe, but recent information from Bucharest has thrown some doubt upon its quality. Lately it has been stated that Rumanian officers are untrained, that Rumania has no heavy artillery and that its flying service is inferior. Some advocates of Rumania's participation in the war have asserted that she could mobilize as many as 1,000,000 men. The mobilization of the army has been in progress for months and a few days ago was reported to be complete. The motive which prompts Rumania to enter the war is the satisfaction of "her national aspirations," described by Take Joneson, the Rumanian liberal leader, as the "policy of national instinct."

Concisely, this means national expansion. In the southern half of Bukovina, the Austrian crown land, the Rumanians are the dominant race. The mass of the people of eastern Transylvania, a part of Hungary, is Rumanian by race and language. It is said 4,000,000 Rumanians live in Transylvania.

Rumania has been credited with a long cherished ambition to annex these provinces and at the same time "liberate" the Rumanians now under Austrian domination. Recently it was reported Russia had offered Cernowitz to Rumania as a reward if she would unite with the entente.

Rumania Covets Bessarabia

Rumania also covets Bessarabia, the extreme southwestern province of Russia, on the Black Sea, which was taken from her by the Berlin treaty of 1878. Reports have stated that Russia also has consented to restore Bessarabia as a war prize, with its population of 2,000,000, mostly Rumanians and an area of 20,000 square miles. This, with Transylvania, would give Rumania a total population approaching 13,000,000, a territory as great as that of England, Scotland and Wales. Rumania has a border line as long as the whole Russian Western war front on which to choose her point of military attack. In what direction her first blow might be aimed is only indicated by her desire to pour her troops through the passes of the Transylvania Alps and the Carpathians into Transylvania. On the other hand, Austria has been accumulating military forces at Orsova, prepared to attempt to force the "Iron Gates," where the Danube river touches the south.

WILSON MAY PLACE STRIKE CRISIS BEFORE JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS

(BULLETIN)

Washington, August 28—President Wilson early today sent word to the committee of eight railroad executives, who will formally present the railroads' counter-proposals, that he would receive them at 2:30 this afternoon instead of at ten o'clock this morning. This was determined upon in order that the president might hold further conferences on legislation on the strike situation for presentation to congress.

Washington, August 28—All government forces were mobilized today in a new effort to prevent a strike on the nation's railway systems. President Wilson's personal efforts to mediate differences between the brotherhoods and the managements apparently had failed, but administration leaders in congress were intently considering legislation which would make a strike improbable at this time. A joint session of congress to hear the president's statement of the situation was in prospect, following Mr. Wilson's visit to the capitol last night to confer with Senator Kern, the majority leader. The course of the brotherhoods was in the hands of a committee of 24, whom the entire committee of 640, before leaving for their homes yesterday, instructed to listen to no proposal involving arbitration of the eight hour basic day. Strike orders were being circulated to await telegraphic release. The counter-proposal for arbitration was to be made to the president today, as the first definite answer to his suggestion of a week ago for concession of the eight hour day with the ten hours pay and arbitration of other issues. As soon as the employees' committee has rejected the executives' counter-proposal, the president is expected to set in motion the congressional wheels through the leaders in both houses.

To this end Senator Newlands, through a greater part of last night framing bills affecting the railroad situation. It was reported President Wilson was considering asking both

DEMONSTRATION BEFORE VENIZELOS, HOME IN GREECE

Athens, Aug. 27.—(Via London, Aug. 28.) Fifty thousand Greeks joined in a demonstration before the residence of Venizelos, the former premier, today, and cheered him sides to postpone action for a certain period. Meanwhile, it might be possible to enact legislation similar to the Canadian law, providing for investigation of labor disputes by a committee and forbidding strikes or lockouts pending inquiry. This course was being discussed seriously, with the possibility that it would be put into immediate effect, thus preventing a strike without adequate public investigation.

Greeks See Territory Gradually Being Occupied By Foreigners

Athens, August 27.—(Via London, August 28.)—The landing of the first contingent of Italian troops at Chimara (a small seaport of Albania on the Strait of Otranto) causes gloom throughout all Greece. The Greeks now see not only eastern Macedonia in the hands of the Bulgars, whom they expelled three years ago but northern Epirus in the hands of the Italians.

Following the landing of the Italian troops the Greek civil officers were temporarily relieved of their functions and the telegraph wires were cut, but this damage was soon repaired. M. Pachtich, the former Serbian premier, has gone to Chalkis to pay his respects to King Peter.

WHEAT MARKET SMASHED

(BULLETIN)

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Rumania's declaration of war smashed the wheat market. Opening prices today showed a fall in some cases amounting to 5½ cents a bushel. September delivery, which closed Saturday at $1.51½, started today at $1.46 to $1.48½. Other options also broke wildly. General rushes to sell took place which were increased by the increased chances of a general railway strike in the United States.

Before the descent of prices could be checked, losses that reached to 8½ cents a bushel were shown for the principal trading months. December sold as low as $1.45½ as compared with $1.54 at Saturday's finish.

KEEPING ABREAST WITH SPORTING TREND

Kilbane Is Favorite

Johnny Kilbane and eGaree Chaney are putting in strenuous training for their 15-round championship bout at Cedar Point on Labor Day. Chaney has arrived in Cleveland and is preparing for the most important fight of his career. From present indications Kilbane will be a 3 to 1 favorite. Fight fans from all parts of the country will witness the acrobatic battle.

Las Faith In Gould

Les Fald, manager of the Cleveland Indians, is sweet on his kid pitcher, Jay Gould, whom he picked up from the Three Eye League this season. Fald says that within another year Gould will be one of the best pitchers in the American League.

DILLY LEADS

Catcher Dillinger's latest batting average as a Milwaukee Brewer is .251. Mr. Henry is hitting .214. Dilly has developed into the team's regular catcher.

THIS HURTS

John Evers rises to remark that there are a lot of "put outs" on which the empires should be given an assist.

A Bird Mystery.

One of the most curious and interesting of the unsolved problems relating to bird migration is connected with the chimney "swallow," more often called the chimney "swallow." A very common and well known bird of the eastern United States. After the breeding season the flocks drift slowly south and concentrate in vast numbers on the northern coast of the Gulf of Mexico. Then they disappear as completely as if they hibernated under the water or in the mud, according to the old belief regarding birds in general. The last week in March they appear again on the Gulf coast. Their hiding place during the intervening five months is still the subject of mystery.

Reds Get Twirlers

Manager Mathewson, of the Reds, has purchased two pitchers from the Kansas City club of the American Association. They are Regan and Sanders, and they are said to be the most promising hurlers in the A. A. circuit. Regan is a right-hander and Sanders is a southpaw. They will report next month in time for a try-out this fall, but not before the Reds go away on their last trip, as Kansas City wishes to retain them until the A. A. race is closed.

The Dog and the Judge.

Like all lovers of dogs, we have a dog show. The agony of nervousness that all that pandemonium of noise and noise must cause in any high priced dog is not pleasant to contemplate. There is something comically comic, too, in the sight of a huge Irish wolfhound, long, gaunt and gray—a very Lincoln among dogs in his majestic simplicity—being judged by a fussy little forked tusk in spats and checked wristcoat. Judged, indeed! We wonder what the wolfhound thinks of it all—LIFE.

To Remove Ty's Tonsils

Union, Aug. 28.—Ty Cobb, crack outfielder for the Detroit American league, will undergo an operation after the close of the baseball season for the removal of his tonsils, he said today. Cobb said he attributed several winning coups which have troubled him recently to bad tonsils.

Pond Creek Defeated

The Selato Trail team defeated Pond Creek Sunday at the latter place 15 to 5. Pond Creek and Schoonover worked for Selato Trail and Zuehl, Simon, Monahan and Varner for Pond Creek.

Hunter's Rapid Rise In Baseball World

Herbert Hunter, the Giants' young utility infielder, has enjoyed a rapid rise in baseball. Where other players have spent years on the diamond and have played in hundreds of games without reaching the big leagues, Hunter has yet to play in 100 contests. This includes his record with the high school team in Melrose, Mass., various amateur teams, the Lindsey Military Academy team, Wheeling of the Central League and the Giants. McGraw is desirous of sending him to the International League or American Association for more seasoning, but cannot get him out of the National League, as the other teams refuse to waive on him.

Bet On Tigers

A Detroit broker Saturday bet $100 against $500 that the Tigers would beat out the Boston Red Sox in the American league. The Red Sox have a five and one-half game lead over the Tigers, who are winning with great regularity these days.

Musicians Were Leading When Rain Halts Game

With five hundred fans present, with both teams displaying whole flocks of power, with everything aimed to the sky of the occasion, rain just had to interfere with the contest between the Police and River City band teams at Millbrook Saturday afternoon, and with the contest 5 to 3 in favor of the horn tooters, hostilities were cancelled in the first half of the fourth inning. It was announced that the game would be played off within the near future, when the admission would be as free as a drink of hydrant water.

The contest started at 2:30 and it must be said that it was a pretty interesting game, despite the fact that a little comedy was injected hither and yon, which was to be expected. Grant Goings, ploughed a furrow a foot deep when he made a wild dash for second base in the first inning. He slid not less than 85 of the 90 feet and made a trench that could be used in the European war. His nose was not damaged in the least.

To those who were "on the fence" it looked as though the "Band boys" would have won the game had not rain intervened. The team seemed to be a clean holding aggression, although the police declare they would soon have been using their bats with deadly effect and overcome the small lead of their opponents. Captain Gould of the police, stated after the game that his men were staked after the range of Chief Gunner Floyd Stearnes and would have soon driven him to the tail and uncut. Capt. Stearnes posessed the idea that the police had found his number and is just as confident as could be that he would have lasted through with colors flying.

Paul Stearnes, who twirled for the police, received some puff support in the second inning when the musicians piled tip four large and ornate runs. The tail finger seemed to have everything he ever did and the fact that he sandwiched a strike out between four hits, saved him from having a bigger flock of runs scored against him. The strike-out victim was Bill Gableman, who had negotiated a double his first time out.

The police took their first bats and for a starter Brown fanned. Haaf was safe on Beaumont's error. Bill Gableman clipped the clever blossoms with a double to the center field precinct. Bennie Ross was checked out by Esselborn, Walter Gableman then delivered with a single to short, Haaf scoring. Jim Gilbert's vicious swing was eaten by Esselborn.

The fact that Tommy Albrecht went to sleep on first base, cost the police several runs in the opening inning. Hubert walked, while Walter Gableman made a big league play on Lewis' roller, getting his man amid applause. Beaumont walked. With his eyes snapping fire, Albrecht came up with a bigger club as long as a fence rail and drove a Honus Wagner single over third, scoring Hubert. Pitcher Stearnes soon erased Albrecht with a snap chuck to first. Flowers then singled, scoring Beaumont. Goings singled also and hit

HELD CLEVELAND INDIANS HITLESS

Leslie "Bullet Joe" Bush who had his name emblazoned in the hall of baseball fame Saturday when he pitched a no-hit game against the Cleveland Indians, spent five days in Portsmouth last summer and made many friends here. He received the nomination for the Ohio State league last year from a seat in the local grand stand. Bush is a clever, congenial chap and is recognized by students of the game as being one of the craftiest pitchers in the game today.

PUT YOURSELF IN THEIR PLACE

According to reports, furnished the consular department of the United States, by Consular Agent Letcher, stationed at Chihuahua, the total valuation of wealth in Mexico is $2,434,241,422. Of this Mexicans themselves own $792,187,242, Americans $1,057,770,000, and other foreigners the balance.

Thus it will be seen that Mexicans possess less than one-third the wealth of their own land. Now, let us be fair about this, let us put ourselves in the place of the Mexicans. Supposing there was an industrial and development invasion of Ohio by Japanese. They proved themselves more enterprising, adept in fraud and chicanery. They corrupted legislatures, they bought up public officials, they stole and seized by loose grants and franchises the utilities of cities and the lands of the country, they oppressed the laborer, they treated all the natives with contempt. Supposing not one individual of the thousands of invaders had any thought of becoming a naturalized citizen, had no personal interest in the country whatsoever, but all were there solely as the "representatives of corporations and vast interests to exploit the resources of the country, to milk it of its plenty and sent it abroad, think you there would not be ill-will and hatred on our part, struggle to get back that of which we had been ruthlessly plundered, because we were supposedly ignorant, unprogressive and inefficient? Certainly there would be, fierce and bloody. Well, that is exactly the condition that exists in Mexico. When we think of it, when we understand the agitation back of those who inspire such clamor as there is for war with her, then we will comprehend fully why this country, in both honor and justice, should exercise the uttermost patience and forbearance in dealing with such government as there will be in that ill-fated land and exercise every influence possible to maintain peace with her, until force becomes the only resource left.

LET US HAVE THE REAL FACTS

It is clear enough that a sewer was built on private land and the city asked to pay for it. This sewer was constructed on the Zaph land in July. In August council actually passed an ordinance to pay the cost of its construction. The city solicitor says the ordinance, providing for payment, came to him in the regular order and he drafted it. The director of public service, under whose supervision is the construction of sewers, says he knew absolutely nothing about this particular one. Now, it is evident from this that no one in rightful authority directed the construction of the sewer; it is equally evident that the only legal authority to authorize its construction was city council. Then let the city solicitor tell who it was brought the data for the ordinance to him in "regular order," and above all, let the city engineer, whose business it is to survey and plan sewers, tell what connection and knowledge he had of the sewer and whether that knowledge was as city engineer, or as representative of the Zaph estate, it being understood that he acts in both capacities. And as for Mayor Kaps he might do a bit of probing to fix liability for what at the best is an inexcusable blunder, and which was exposed and denounced by the floor leader of council, Mr. Charles Wilson.

The automobile owner may regard it as unfortunate, that it should choose Sunday afternoon to rain, but then he'll have to admit it was some rain at that.

West Virginia papers and orators are bragging about the vast coal operations of the state. All admitted, but three years ago half of the same were lugubriously predicting that free trade would paralyze it.

How a politician thinks he can commend himself to partisans and politicians by outcries against the ravishment of the civil service is one of those things past understanding.

The Korn Carnival promoters avow they are going to make it more of a show this year than ever. That's some undertaking, but the Peersless has a way of ever moving forward.

A paper says the Danish West Indies could have been bought for $5,000,000 when John Hay was secretary of state. Why recall how foolish it was in John not to snap up the bargain? Those islands are seriously needed in our preparedness business.

The Hinton Kender is altogether unique. It favors the primary and says it works like a charm. We should say it is and may be it does—in West Virginia where it calls the dead back to life and enables dogs and mules to exercise the sacred functions of the ballot.

It will be a long time before the race of wooden heads become extinct. A government expert figures there is enough timber in the country to last 441 years.

Nothing like being exact. Think what a joy it was to read that in one engagement the Russians had captured 2,987 prisoners, after having had it put in round figures all these years, until you had begun to believe it was against the rules of war to capture anything except even thousands.

Some people don't know a price when they see it. The Danes have refused to sell their little patches of ground above the waters of the Gulf of Mexico to the United States.

The Beavers Hunt A Home

BUSBY BEAVER straightened the hair on his forehead and perked up his eyebrows. "Now we're almost there," said he encouragingly. "Well, maybe so," replied his mother kindly; "but you never can tell."

"But mother! We've been traveling miles and miles and miles and miles!" exclaimed Busby in dismay. "Aren't we anywhere yet?"

Mother Beaver laughed and Father Beaver looked around to see what was going on. He had been marching ahead, you see.

"He wants to know if we're there yet," laughed Mother Beaver. "Just as though we knew!"

Father Beaver looked at Busby but he didn't laugh. You see he was tired too and he knew exactly how Busby felt. "This hunting a new home business is hard work, Busby, there's no doubt about that," said he. "But you very well know we couldn't stay at the old place—not after these trappers came! Your hide wouldn't have been worth a cat tail, not a single cat tail, to you. I can tell you that! We have to find a safe place this time and we have to go till it's found. I don't want to build a fine place again and then have to move right away, not I! No, sir! We'll journey till we find a nice, quiet little creek, near a pleasant little pond, and there we'll build and there we'll stay. So do be patient, Busby."

Of course, after such a long speech as that, there was nothing for Busby to do but to start ahead. Father Beaver was not much of a speech-maker and when he talked so much Busby realized that important things were going on. So he gave himself a little shake and started on again.

But he had not far to go before something happened.

Mother Beaver, who had gone on ahead while Father Beaver was talking to Busby, gave a sharp little cry. "Father Beaver! Father Beaver!" she called breathlessly, "come here!"

"What's the matter?"

"I've found the place," she answered, "the very place we've been hunting!"

Busby could hardly believe his ears! He scampered after his father, and what do you suppose they saw? The prettiest little creek they had ever discovered! Yes, sir! Right there in front of them "think of that!"

"Here's where we stay!" said Mother Beaver.

"Butta me," said Father Beaver. "Hurry!" shouted Busby. Beaver, and he threw down his hat and began playing.

THE COST OF FAST LIVING

We have heard a good deal of the high cost of living; a little figuring will show fast living costs a trifle also.

According to "The Record of Automobile Owners in Scioto county", just off the press, there are 1152 automobiles darting hither and thither all over the net work of roads hereabouts. There are more than that because there are omissions in the Record and since the data for it was compiled every dealer has sold some machines. We will say then, as we can safely can, that there are today 1,200 cars owned in Scioto county. This represents an aggregate investment of a round million dollars. Assuming each car will consume no more than a gallon of gasoline a day that would be for the whole lot 1,200 gallons, at an cost of $110,000, $130,000 on a reasonably allowance for oil consumption. A low estimate for repairs and up-keep would be $25 for each car. This would add $30,000 more, making $160,000. But we must very modestly put on another $25 for tires and tubes. Then we would have $190,000 for the year. That's a right substantial sum, but it is not all, not by any means. The interest on a million, $60,000 every twelve months. The average life of a car is about five years. Thus at the end of that time there would be heaped high a total, allowing for the incidental expense a car entails in the way of extra cost of meals from home, of a full million and a half in five years, one-fortieth of the assessed wealth of the county.

As interesting data gathered from the Record, it may be mentioned that in the 1,200 cars there are 77 different makes, over 400 of one make and over a 100 each of two others.

ANGER SHORTENS LIFE

"Anger or rage uses up the vital forces at an appalling rate," says the Kansas City Star—and truthfully. "The exhausted feeling which comes over you after you have been thoroughly angry should tell you that you have drawn on the day's supply of vitality."

But it does no good to discuss the point, for the reason that people who are in the habit of becoming angry claim that they can not help it—it is their nature, they assure you. But as a matter of fact, there is no characteristic so easily overcome as the habit of becoming angry—if only people would try to overcome it.

Anger is an indication of mental weakness. It is folly, in fact, and the person of wisdom refuses to be angered. So when one tells you that he can not restrain himself, that he can not help becoming angry, it is equivalent to admitting that he is foolish to that extent, or lacking in intelligence to a very great degree.—Dayton News.

It is growing as it goes. It is now "estimated" that it took $200,000 to put Herrick over for the senatorial nomination. Why not stick to the pretty well established $50,000. That's enough to show just what a lovely chance the primary affords the candidate of small means.

Outside of Portsmouth there are 275 automobiles owned in Scioto county. A proof that the machine is a utility as well as a pleasure.

Some candidates are long on telling what they would not have done, but when it comes to telling what they would have done, why, that's different.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, Aug. 28—In appearance Carlo De Fornaro looks very much like a Jesuit priest and he keeps the hours of a brigand. He sleeps all day long at his bungalow on Staten Island and at night he wanders from cafe to cafe. Regardless of his cat life, he drinks nothing stronger than water, but he smokes cigarettes incessantly.

He is one of the odd geniuses who make the night life of Broadway just a bit interesting. Without a few of his kind it would be colorless and drab. He was born in Calcutta, India, and reared in Italy and Switzerland. In 1904, after several years as a cartoonist in New York, he grew tired of the glittering electric signs and went to Mexico.

When he returned to New York he exposed the Machiavellian methods of Diaz and for his troubles was sentenced to three years on Blackwell's Island for criminal libel. While he was on the island he wrote several books and he drew many cartoons which were printed in New York papers.

A famous all night restaurant has its walls plastered with drawings and paintings done for Fornaro. After he makes a tour of the other cafes he winds up there at 3 o'clock in the morning, and with the other midnight sons waits for the sun—and sometimes other things—to come up.

A page from Broadway. Joe Hall at nineteen King of the race tracks. Joe Hall at 69 Bowery delirious. The other day he was sentenced to the workhouse for three months for handling. He has been living a hand to mouth life on the Bowery for six years. Years ago he thought nothing of placing $10,000 on a pony that struck his fancy. He was known by the man who runs the famous Alligator Flop House on the Bowery, where two may split a glass of beer and then sleep all night on the floor in the flop room in the rear. About a year ago Hall was given the Alligator Louis XVI room for his lodgings.

It has a regular bed and one chair. Hall always took his breakfast in his room just like he did when he lived at the Astor. His breakfast was a three cent bowl of hot soup. In his room the police found several of his own poems warning young men to shun the many candle power cigarettes and never gamble.

Three years ago Florence La Budie dropped a dime between the cracks of the floor of a slugs at the Thalhouser studio. Probably the incident would have been forgotten right there had the concern not hired the versatile Jerome Besty as press agent. Now the whole matter has been revived and improved upon. Workmen were tearing up the flooring at the same spot. They found a quarter. It was the coin Miss La Budie had dropped. Fifteen cents in interest had accumulated.

And not satisfied with this, Beauty hides his head with the shame of his admission and writes: "Jack Girondo, the 'dare-devil' actor, who risks his neck without batting an eye, recently went fishing and refused to bait his own hook because he was afraid of the worms."

There is a new little restaurant in West Thirty-fourth street, where they allow the patron to see the bill, the kitchen, the chef and the food before it is cooked. I dropped in there the other evening. In front was a sandwich man wistfully staring at the chef stirring some dish over the coals.

"Perhaps you would like to dine here?" I ventured. He looked at me strangely and I looked at him again. I passed into the restaurant without another word. My sandwich man had once given me employment in the West. Drink had dragged him down, but he has pride.

Five years ago he was doing the same thing, but got a grip on himself and fought his way back to the top. I wonder if he will again?

CONCRETING THE SHADOW

In Virginia one of the Democratic nominees for presidential elector, having been since named for congress, feels impelled to resign the first honor. At once a lively discussion has sprung up over the state as to who shall be chosen his successor and the newspapers are entering with great zest into the subject. It all seems rather absurd. A presidential elector is no great shakes. He's a mere proxy, an automaton. All the privilege he gets is to have his name printed on the ticket, and, if elected, go to the state capital and cast his vote for the man his party offers for president. His pay is practically nothing, unless he happens to be selected as messenger to carry the vote to Washington and then it is no great shakes. Honor, yes, high one but vanishing like a shadow and leaving no impression behind it, nor before, for that matter. Go out on the street this day, ask every Democrat or Republican who are the nominees for electors on his ticket and for every one he is able to mention, we'll give you a dime, if you'll give us a cent for every one he can't recall and has never heard of. Yes; we'll do better. Ask a 100 and we'll lay the same odds they can't so much as tell you the name of the presidential elector for this district.

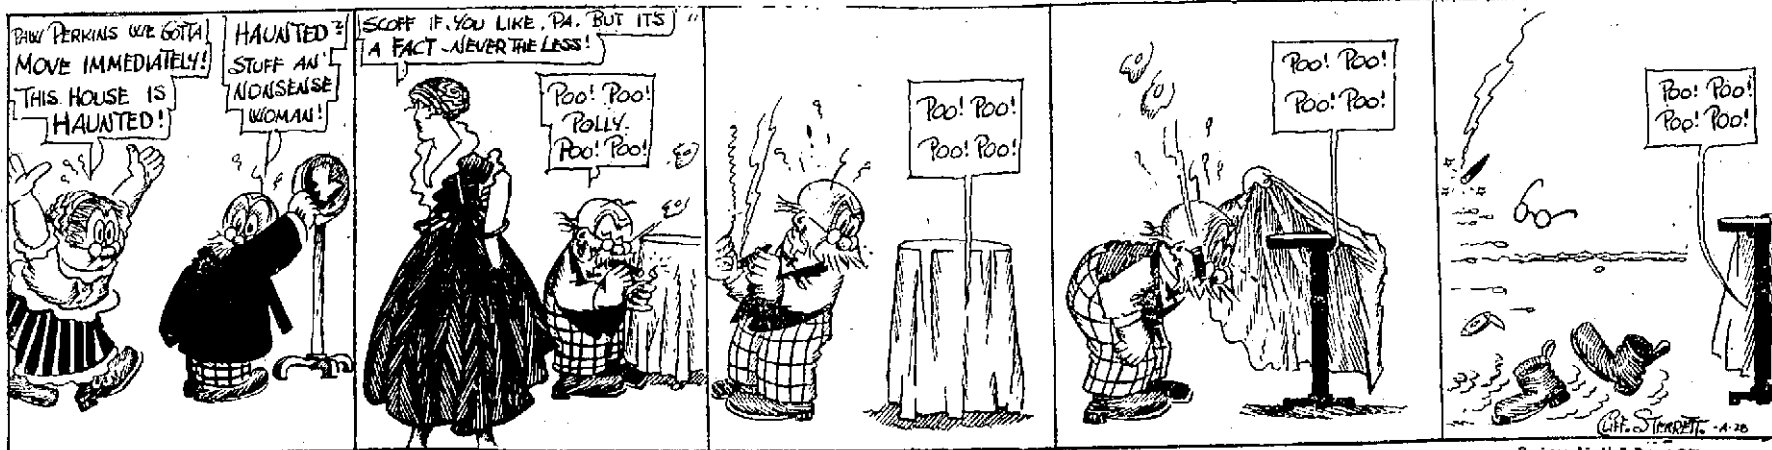

Brick roads are a good advertisement. Last week an automobile wayfarer through the northern part of the state heard Scioto county and its immediate vicinity were getting all the state money to build brick pikes. Of course, everybody casts longing eyes towards where the money is.

Following the injunction of a famous advertisement the Bulgarians have taken Kastoria.

The Blacksmiths' Union, composed of N. & W. blacksmiths, have reported to Secretary F. M. Burdick, of Central Labor Council, that their local will be in the Labor Day parade.

The Blacksmiths expect to make their usual fine showing in this parade.

SATURDAY IS POST CARD DAY

There are twenty-five thousand Korn Carnival post cards on sale at the various stores in the city. Not quite enough for every citizen of Portsmouth, but enough to supply those who desire to mail a card to their friends and relatives living out of the city.

Saturday, Sept. 2, is Post Card Day for the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival. A post card placed in the mail to an out-of-town friend will assist to build the carnival celebration.

Each card, a small card, let twenty-five thousand and a Landmark. An advertising feature of the post cards, each one representing

Bulgaria Prepared For Invasion

Bulgaria is said to have stationed 100,000 or more troops along the southern bank of the Danube to protect her northern frontier from a Rumanian invasion. Apprehension in Germany that Rumania intends to pass a Russian army through her territory to attack the Bulgarians has been apparent for some time. Military authorities in Budapest assert that the chief factor for the consideration of the Central Powers is not the half a million or more men of the Rumanian army, but the opportunity offered for a new Russian invasion of Hungary. Rumanian sympathizers in Transylvania have been sent to other sections and the Rumanian priests and churches there have been kept under military supervision.

The Transylvania Rumanian frontier defenses have been strengthened by Austria as a precaution against Rumanian invasion.

Powerful influences on the part of most of the Central Powers and the entente allies have been exerted at Bucharest to influence her in the war for the last two years. Recently reports from the Rumanian capital have stated that Rumania was awaiting the beginning of the Anglo-French offensive in Macedonia before joining her fortunes with those of the entente allies. Another reason for delay in her decision, it is said, has been lack of ammunition, which now has been relieved by large supplies coming from Japan by the way of Vladivostok, according to recent reports.

ROCKY FORD READS THE SIGN

Friends of a local business man are having considerable fun at his expense and it is all because some mischievous boy removed the simple letter "S" from a word he had written on a sign on his auto delivery truck.

He is a well known grocer somewhere in Portsmouth and drives a well known brand of automobile that has become known the world over. On the side of this machine is the sign "Rocky Ford," which is the cause of all the comments.

BACK FROM 1,250 MILE AUTO TRIP

Leo Sommer, of the hardware firm of Sommer Bros., and family returned home Sunday night from a 1,250 automobile trip through Illinois. He said it is very dry in most sections of that state, only one rain falling during the three weeks he spent there. The price of gasoline on the trip he found varied from 17 1-3 to 25 cents per gallon.

DRAVO COMPANY IS VERY BUSY

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 28.—Within a few months another new towboat will be seen on the rivers in the Pittsburgh district. The Dravo Contracting Company at its shops, Neville Island, Ohio River, is building an all-steel double-deck "tunnel style," twin-screw propelled towboat for its own use. The boat, which will be known as "Peace," will be 112 feet long, 22 feet wide, 4.10 feet deep, with a draught of 32 inches, and will have 250 horse power. The company, which does most of its shipping by the river route, is building a pump house for the Whitaker-Gessner Co., Portsmouth O. It has just completed an all-steel sand digger for the Keystone Sand and Supply Company, of Pittsburgh, and also the erection of an elaborate sand hoist at McKeesport. They also have erected an all-steel derrick boat, 72 by 35 feet with a 65-foot boom, known as the Atlas, for the United States Government, to be used in the Potomac river for the reclamation of ground in that river. The boat was shipped by rail and assembled at Alexandria.

Federal engineers here have made a shipment of more than 30 tons of gate machinery and operating jacks for Dam No. 29 near Ashland, Ky., on the steamer Tell City. The machinery will be re-shipped at Point Pleasant on one of the Greene Line steamers.

Splendid Rehearsals Held Sunday By Geeks

Yesterday proved to be the big day for the Geeks' minstrel rehearsal at the Brunner rooms on Chillicothe street. Every chair in the room was taken and each and every member of the show seemed eager to put his shoulder to the wheel and keep the good work going. The boys began the good work at 1:30 p. m. yesterday and with the exception of an hour for lunch, remained right with it heart and soul until 10:15 last night.

Winchester Man Meets "Friend," Is Robbed

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 28.—John Butler, Winchester, O., told the police that when he left home Friday as a "safety first" measure he put his bill of $110, in an old tobacco bag in his hip pocket, where most tobacco users carry their tobacco bag.

This, Butler figured, would fool pickpockets in Cincinnati.

K. K. Meeting Tonight

All general chairmen of committees for the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival are expected to meet this evening at 7:30 with the directors of the Business Men's Association. The meeting will be held in the offices of the Association, Masonic Temple.

Shot In Arm While Cleaning Revolver

While cleaning an old revolver Sunday afternoon, William Cooper, of Eighth street, a shoemaker, received a flesh wound in the left arm when the trigger of the machine was accidentally snapped. The bullet lodged in the ceiling of the room occupied by Cooper. He says he thought the revolver "wasn't loaded."

Rifle Club Is Go.

By Monday noon Gen. Carroll, at the head of the movement to organize a government rifle club, had secured 13 applications, three more than necessary for a charter. Mr. Carroll wishes it understood that there are no obligations for service entailed upon members of the R. C. Clubs. The applicants are Gerald R. Matthews, G. Albert Berns, C. W. Hucks, Thos. A. Dorrigh, Thos. Arthur, A. M. Barber, George C. Lander, Warner Clark, Aaron Bolst, Ralph Thomas, Dan R. Flannigan, Morris Hicks and Geo. Carroll.

New Clerk

SMALL WONDER THAT HE WAS STUMPED

"Haul Anybody, Any Place," reads a sign on the windshield of Clay Mershon's new taxi, but when a West Side farmer on the Market street esplanade stepped up Monday and asked the owner what his charge would be to take him to Hades, Clay was stumped. "I really don't know what to say about that," replied Clay with a puzzled air.

TAKES DEPARTURE ON LONG TRIP

T. H. Bellamy, 94, who fell last year and broke a hip, left Saturday for Elk City Oklahoma, where he will make his home. It is a long trip for a man of Mr. Bellamy's age but before leaving he said he felt sure he would make it easily. He lived here with his son, Judge Bellamy, and family.

FIVE GENERATIONS REPRESENTED

O. A. Ricker, of Tampa, Fla., who has been in the city visiting relatives and friends, was present at the gold wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Carter, held near Harrisonville, Tuesday. Mr. Ricker is somewhat of a mathematician and while at the celebration set his thinking powers to working. The result at which Mr. Ricker arrived is almost unbelievable, but if you have the time you can figure the question out for yourself.

To Nominate Officers

St. Joseph's Court Catholic Order of Foresters will meet to night in regular session. This being the nomination of officers a big turnout of members is expected.

STREET CAR HITS MACHINE, REVARE CAR AGAIN DAMAGED

While driving his automobile south on Chillicothe street Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, David A. Debing, of 619 Offshore street, figured in an accident when a street car hit his machine. The left rear fender was bent and the back of the machine was damaged as the result of the impact. John L. Dillard, of Rocky Mount, Va., was in the car with Mr. Debing, but they were not hurt.

Two Cars In Slight Collision

Two automobiles collided on Sixth street west of Chillicothe street Saturday evening. The damage was slight. The identity of the owners was not discovered.

Thousands of people go through TIMES WANT ADS every night. They read them with profit.

Testing His "Movie."

Virgil Fowler of the Camera shop, was busy testing his movie camera Saturday so as to have it in tip-top shape for the Korn Carnival.

Seek a position through TIMES WANT ADS. Employers of labor read them carefully.

Wagon Gone

Virgil Roth, of 14 Sinton street, accompanied by his mother, called at police headquarters Saturday and reported that a boy had stolen his wagon. Officer Platt was detailed to investigate.

A contract for making a ten-foot fill-in what was formerly known as the Idlewild Addition, where a blast furnace is being erected, was awarded Saturday evening by the Whitaker-Gessner Company to The Sturm-Dillard Company.

It will require 230,000 cubic yards of dirt to make the fill, the dirt to be secured from the hill opposite Idlewild Addition. The hill is owned by Messrs. L. C. Turley and Alan N. Jordan. It will require from six to eight months to complete the job, which will make the site of the new $1,000,000 blast furnace above 62 feet.

The work of clearing the huge space where the firm will get its dirt was begun Monday morning by Supt. David A. Breinig. Two big steam shovels will be used on the job and they will literally make the dirt fly.

L. E. Sturm, who resides in Columbus, built the Lawson Run viaduct in the East End and is one of the best known and most successful contractors in Ohio.

John L. Dillard resides in Rockymount, Va., and he frequently bids with Mr. Sturm on certain kinds of work. He also bids on jobs individually. He was here Saturday and signed the contract for the Sturm-Dillard Company to make the Idlewild fill.
